He called and stated his landlord, Eddington, had come into his home without an appointment while he was sleeping. Garrison got upset and an argument started. Eddington stated she had contacted Garrison the previous day stating she would be out today to do an inspection on the home. She arrived today and attempted to make contact with him for several minutes. She noted his vehicle was in the driveway, but she entered into the home to do the inspection. Garrison was sleeping, became upset and she contacted the police to help her do the inspection. Eddington did send a text message to Garrison stating she would be out today, but did not say when. Garrison did not respond to the text and claimed he never got it, though it was on his cell phone. Both parties had a copy of the lease agreement. One paragraph states the landlord may do an inspection whenever they deem necessary. Another paragraph states if the landlord attempts to do an inspection, and fails to do one, they must leave a note. The tenant then has 7 days to respond to the note and to schedule an appointment for the inspection. Due to the conflicting paragraphs, I advised that the agreement needed to be amended. At this time, Garrison wanted Eddington taken to jail for illegally entering his home. I explained that with the confusion of the two paragraphs in the same agreement, I would take a report and suggest he		MURRAY, D. P.

Courtney stated that OF was at the house visting IO(Stephen) when she started to act strange and she went out to the garage. OF then started to break stuff in the garage. Courtney went outside and was chased by OF who was holding a hammer. Courtney stated she was in fear of being hit with the hammer. They then asked OF to leave the house and they went back inside. OF left the property and then came back. OF then started to beat on the back door of the house. Miller opened the door and saw the OF standing there. They told OF to leave several times and the OF refused to leave. After OF refused to leave Courtney then struck OF with a bat approximately 3 times. Miller then put OF in his car and took her to the United Caring Shelter (324 NW Sixth St). When Miller arrived back on scene I asked if we could go inside of the garage to see what OF had allegedly damaged. When the door was opened I observed a broken glass table and a broken cabinet mirror. Courtney wants the OF barred banned from the property. Courtney was given a case number but she was not sure if she wanted to press charges.
