LW 2115455 Criminal Trespass	others loaded said items into a UHaul truck. The reporter said the offender then came back into the store and selected the same model of TV and futon from display and left the store, passing all points of check out and failed to pay for the items. While this took place, the involved others had pulled the UHaul to the front of the store. The reporter stated once the offender was outside with the stolen items he loaded said items into the vehicle and he drove the vehicle away from the property. The reporter called the incident into central dispatch and I, Officer Hastings, responded. Once on scene, I gathered the information from the reporter along with the description of the offender and involved other as well as the license plate that was on the UHaul. The reporter captured the incident on the stores video security camera system. I called the UHaul store on E Riverside Dr at US 41 and asked for them to provide the name of the subject who rented the vehicle. Once the information was given, I confirmed the address and phone number of the individual who rented the vehicle and it returned to IO#1. I drove to the location of her apartment and observed a UHaul truck backed up to the apartment building. I called for another car and while waiting on backup, the UHaul proceeded onto Tippecanoe Dr toward Green River Rd from the apartment complex. I observed the offender was driving and IO#1 was a passenger. I conducted a traffic stop using the emergency lights and siren on my commissioned fully marked Evansville Police car. The offender pulled the vehicle into the parking lot of 4910 Tippecanoe Dr. I took the offender into custody at that time and stated the Miranda warnings to him. I then advised him the reason he was being detained and asked if he wanted to talk. The offender didn't make any statements at the time. IO#1 was advised as well and ,at first, was not cooperative, but then provided information the stolen items were at her apartment and she was unaware of what the offender had done. The reporter was requested to the scene and arrived a short time later. The reporter positively identified the offender as the one who stole from the store. The reporter assisted Officer Winn and Turnock on scene with recovering the stolen items from IO#1's apartment. The transport wagon arrived and transported the offender to the Vanderburgh Co Confinement Center without incident. I followed and the offender was housed on the listed charges.	ADAMS, H. D.
