LW 2114165 Alcoholic Beverage- Public Intoxication By Alcohol	Alcoholic Beverage- Public Intoxication By Alcohol (C), at 324 Nw Sixth St, Evansville, IN, on 08/04/2021, 17:20. Reported: 08/04/2021. No victims listed.		THOMAS, C. D.
LW 2114167 Family Offense- Invasion Of Privacy	Bruner, Zachary Talmadge (W M, 40) VICTIM of Family Offense- Invasion Of Privacy (C), at 2999 S Saint James Blvd/van Bibber Ave, Evansville, IN, between 19:24, 08/04/2021 and 19:28, 08/04/2021. Reported: 08/04/2021. On the listed date, the witness flagged me, Officer Hastings, down stating a white Mazda 3 was driving recklessly and appeared to be trying to force another vehicle, a red truck, off the roadway. The witness said the Mazda was driving into yards trying to get around the red truck. The witness pointed out the vehicles as they were going west on Rheinhardt Ave toward Villa Dr. I turned my fully marked Evansville Police Department patrol car around and located both vehicles stopped side by side at the end of S Saint James Blvd and Van Bibber Ave. Upon speaking to both occupants, later identified as the victim and offender, I advised them the reason for the contact and asked if they were having an argument. Both advised they were not having a problem and were planning on going to their residence. I asked the offender for her identification and she stated she must have left it at home, but stated the vehicle she had been driving was registered to her. The victim provided his driver's license. Upon checking both through the BMV and NCIC, I found the offender had a protective order against her where she was not to be around the victim. The protective order showed active and doesn't expire until 04-26-2023(82D012104CM002117). I went back to the offender's vehicle and requested her to step out. The offender verbally began questioning why she must get out of her vehicle and I advised her again to cooperate and exit her vehicle. Once the offender exited her vehicle, I went to secure the offender in handcuffs and she began to forcefully pull away her arms and try to move away from me. I eventually pushed the offender into the corner of the open vehicle door and was able to lock her arms. Once I had the offender's arms secure, I was able to place handcuffs on the offender. Once in handcuffs, the offender began yelling and screaming that she was being injured and battered. All this, while the offender and I were just standing next to her vehicle. The offender tried several times to kick me and I had to move the offender to the ground where I was able to better control her until additional officers arrived. While on the ground with the offender, the offender again attempted to kick me. Once additional officers and the transported wagon arrived, we were able to place the offender in the wagon. The offender was transported to the Vanderburgh Co Confinement Center by the transport wagon.		HASTINGS, M. J.
