LW 2115919 Domestic Battery-simple Assault	Ling, Seth Alan (W M, 24) VICTIM of Domestic Battery-simple Assault (C), at 1306 W Missouri St, Evansville, IN, between 04:00, 08/27/2021 and 04:02, 08/27/2021. Reported: 08/27/2021.  Officers were dispatched to the above address for a domestic violence in progress.  I talked to the victim and he stated that the offender, his wife, and he have been in relationship for 4 years. The victim stated that for couple days they have been arguing about cheating and accusing each other. The victim stated that today while he has taking a shower the offender possibly punched him around his head area and knocked the shower curtain with the rod. The victim stated that she got mad because she thought that he called her fat. The victim stated that he wasn't sure of if he got slapped or punched because he was not looking. The victim stated that once he was finished he told the offender that he was calling 911 and could not find his cellphone, so he tried to grab the offender's phone but she resisted and did not let him. The victim stated that there was a little struggle in between them and he was able to take the phone from the offender and was able to call us. During our conversation the victim never mentioned to me that the offender and he have been married since January of this year and that they had kids together in the residence, but luckily they were not disturbed and were still in their sleep.  I talked to the offender and she stated that they have been together for 4 years and married since January. The offender explained that she is currently into an open relationship and does have a partner, and was okay for the victim having one as well. The offender showed me some red skin ton marks and explained me that those were injury marks. I did not observe any, the offender had pail white skin with a red tone, and had same red markings all over her body and the ones that looked like injuries or had purple color to them, and she stated that those were birth marks. The offender initially stated that the victim was taking a shower and she just tried to talk to him but he kept closing the shower curtain so she just tried to pull the curtain but instead the rod came off and hit the victim around the head area, which was unintentional from her side as she stated. I asked her if maybe she was mad while she pulled the curtain because she was called fat, the offender stated that yes, and that she was but she did not want to hit him. The offender stated that once the victim was finished showering he tried to grab her phone and she did not want to give him her phone so she resisted and the victim had grabbed her arm and had pushed her to get her phone from her. The offender refused to press any charges.  Both parties refused AMR.		AGHASARYAN,

LW 2115959 Communication- Intimidation	Brooks, Andrea Ann (W F, 53) VICTIM of Communication- Intimidation (C), at 725 E Iowa St, Evansville, IN, between 14:50, 08/27/2021 and 15:03, 08/27/2021. Reported: 08/27/2021. Officers were dispatched 725 E Iowa Street in regard to a family dispute. Central Dispatch advised that the offender was reportedly threatening the victim. The victim apparently locked herself in one of her rooms to remain safe. The offender had an active arrest warrant in Vanderburgh County. I looked up the offender in RMS and observed a old booking photo of him. The reporter advised there was a key officers could use to get inside. Upon arriving, I knocked on the door. A female, later identified as the victim, came to the door and opened it up. The female appeared to be crying. She retreated back to another room in the house. Once the female retreated, I observed a white male (offender) sitting in a chair in the front room. I asked the offender for his name, which he provided me. Knowing that the male had an active arrest warrant, I placed him into handcuffs and searched him incident to arrest. I read him the Miranda Warning, but he did not wish to speak with me. I then spoke with the victim, who was sitting on her bed in her bedroom. The victim was still crying and said something about how she wanted him out of the house. The victim advised that the offender was doing something to her television and she thought he was going to break it. The victim told the offender not to damage her television. The offender told the victim "get out of my face" and "I'm going to kill you." The offender also threatened to trash the house. The victim advised she was scared, so she went to her room and locked the door. I told the victim that the offender was going to jail for his arrest warrant. The		EAGLESON, R. C.

	victim advised she did not want to press any charges against the offender at the time. I provided the victim with a case number in the event she decided to change her mind. I also asked the victim if she needed any resources or housing to remove her from the situation. The victim declined any assistance. I lastly advised the victim how to seek a protective order. After I completed the arrest and returned to duty, I received a notify message from Central Dispatch. The victim called back in and requested that the responding officer charge the offender with intimidation. Since I had already completed the arrest, I called the victim back. An unknown female answered the phone, but stated that the victim had left and she would take the message for her. I advised the unknown female to tell the victim that she needs to go to the prosecutor's office in order to file charges against the offender.

Reported: 08/27/2021. No victims listed. I, Officer R. Eagleson, was on duty fully dressed in an Evansville Police Department uniform driving fully marked Evansville Police Department Vehicle 1744. Several units were dispatched to Zestos (102 W Franklin Street) in regard to a disorderly conduct. Central Dispatch advised that a black male, later identified as the offender, was inside of the restaurant destroying property. There were multiple calls regarding this incident. EPD Sergeant M. Saltzman arrived first on scene and observed the offender holding onto a computer in his hands. Sergeant Saltzman told the offender to put the computer down and put his hands behind his back. The offender complied with Sergeant Saltzman. Sergeant Saltzman placed the offender into custody using double-locked handcuffs. Sergeant Saltzman sat the offender down on a nearby picnic table. Sergeant Saltzman observed that the offender was behaving erratically. He was profusely sweating, rocking back and forth while sitting, and yelling loudly about demons possessing him. Officers J. Hassler and J. Beard arrived on scene to assist. Officers were unsure what was occurring with the offender medically. The offender's medical condition was progressively worsening as time was passing by. The offender's words were becoming slurred, he foamed at the mouth, and stiffened up multiple parts of his body. Concerned for his health, Officers requested AMR to the scene for medical treatment. Officers Hassler and Beard asked the offender if he had ingested anything that would have caused his current medical issues. The offender advised that he had smoked K2 (synthetic cannabinoids) prior to the incident. A synthetic cannabinoid/K2 is a controlled drug that is illegal to possess. Officers spoke to the two juvenile employees at the restaurant. They advised that they were working their shift when the offender walked inside requesting some ice water. The employees provided the offender some ice water and then he went outside and sat on the picnic table for a while. The employees advised that the offender returned inside of the restaurant and began starting problems. The employees told the offender to leave the restaurant. The offender became furious and began destroying the restaurant. Several items were destroyed or damaged, including computer equipment, a glass barrier, and signage. Liquid was spilled all over the floor. Officer Beard photographed the damage using his	EAGLESON, R. C.

The employees estimated that the damage to the restaurant was more than $1000.00. When AMR arrived on scene, officers and EMTs had the offender sit on the cot to be loaded into the back of the ambulance. Once on the cot, The offender began yelling extremely loud, disturbing several people in the area who arrived at Zestos to eat. It was apparent to me that The offender's use of K2 affected him in such a way that he lost control and verbally breached the peace in the immediate area. The offender would not stop yelling and fighting his restraints until the paramedic heavily sedated him. The offender was transported to a local hospital for medical treatment. The offender was admitted to the hospital. Officers were unable to make a custodial arrest. A warrant was filed for the offender's arrest based on the listed charges.

Reported: 08/27/2021. Officers were dispatched to 2105 E Virginia St in reference to a Check Welfare. The caller wanted officers to check the welfare of her daughter who was supposed to be staying in a tent behind the address. On scene officers located the tent and the caller's daughter, as well as a male inside the tent. There was a strong odor of marijuana omitting from the tent and the owner of the tent consented to a search of the tent. Inside the tent, a blue smoking pipe was located on the mattress and inside a backpack, a bag with a green leafy substance that later tested positive for marijuana and black scale were located as well. The male, the offender, stated the pipe and backpack were both his, as well as the marijuana and scale located inside the backpack. The offender was cited for possession of marijuana and possession of paraphernalia, advised of his court date, and released. The bag containing the green leafy substance, smoking pipe, and scale were entered into evidence at EPD Headquarters.		AKER, B. W.

Reported: 08/27/2021. Officers were dispatched to 2116 Oakland Ave in regards to a hit and run accident. Upon arrival I spoke with the owner, Dirk Mangold, who advised that he noticed his black trailer had shifted sometime between 0700 and 1715 hours. Dirk stated he left this morning and his trailer was still sitting on the blocks. When he arrived home after work his trailer had shifted and the hitch was no longer on the blocks. Along with the hitch being knocked off the blocks the wheels had moved also. Dirk stated that he went to the rear of his trailer, which was sitting in front of his residence at the above address, he noticed some damage on the lower right side of the trailer. When he opened the trailer he observed his motorcycle laying on its side. Dirk stated there was no real substantial damage to the motorcycle other then some cosmetic scratches. When Dirk opened the trailer door for us the motorcycle was already on the blocks that he sets it on. The motorcycle has an air ride system so there is no kick stand for the motorcycle. I observed the damage, and advised that I would do a hit and run report for him. Dirk has no clue who may have hit his trailer other then possibly a work truck from the company who is doing city road work up the block from his residence.		ROSE, M. A.
