LW 2116015	there. Last night Drew was staying at the house on Warren Drive and around midnight someone knocked on the door. They only have one key and he thought it might be his mom Christy. It wasn't. It was the suspect who barged into the house and refused to leave. Drew told her she had to go but she refused. So he told her she could stay but she has to leave first thing in the morning. When morning came she said she wasn't leaving. At this point Drew leaves the house and walks to the house at 505 Berkley. He goes inside and tells his mom Christy the suspect is at the house and refusing to leave. Christy tells Drew to stay here and she walks to the house on Warren Drive. Once she gets to the house she tells the suspect she has to leave. The suspect says she isn't leaving until Drew comes back. Christy told the suspect Drew was at the house on Berkley and wasn't coming back. The suspect the pushed Christy and left the residence. Once she left the residence on Warren Drive she drove straight to the address on Berkley and began beating on the doors and windows. Breaking one screen. She was also making threats about burning down the house. The residents called 911 and the suspect fled before Officers could arrive.		DICKINSON, J. D.
