Reported: 08/05/2021. Officers were dispatched to the Circle K Gas Station at 7 N Fulton for a theft in progress. Officers arrived and were conducting the investigation into the possible theft. During officer's investigation, the offender, Turessa Cook, continually attempted to walk away after being told several times she was detained and not free to leave. After multiple attempts to keep the offender detained without handcuffs, she walked away again after being told she would be placed in handcuffs if she walked away. While officers attempted to handcuff the offender, she stiffened her arms and balled her fists in her pockets, making it physically difficult to place her in handcuffs. The offender was lightly placed on the ground and did not suffer any injuries nor did she report any. Officers placed her in handcuffs using the necessary amount of force to effect the arrest. It was later determined the offender had not shoplifted. The offender was transported to the Vanderburgh County Confinement Center and booked on the above listed charge.		CARPENTER, B.
