LW 2116646 Correction- Sex Offender Fail To Possess Indiana Drivers Lic	Pressley was read the Miranda Warning. He advised he understood his rights. According to Pressley, he and Smith were driving on Burkhardt next to Wal-Mart east. They were arguing. Smith had accused him of messing around with one of Smith's friends. The argument escalated to the point where Smith wanted to get out of the car. Pressley stated that he was concerned for Smith's mental health so he tried to keep her in the listed vehicle. Pressley stated besides trying to hold onto Smith, it never got physical beyond that. Pressley stated that he and Smith were married. According to Smith, the couple had left Henderson this morning around 0800 this morning. Smith stated that once they got back into Evansville Pressley began to punch her in the legs and hips. The couple had been arguing all day. Smith stated that as they were on Burkhardt Rd she attempted to escape the truck. Smith stated that Pressley grabbed her wrists to prevent her from leaving the truck. Smith was able to get loose and ran inside Wal-Mart. Smith stated that Pressley found her in the woman's section. He stated "I'm going to kill you." He told her not to make a commotion or a scene. Smith stated she told him she had to use the restroom. This was when she was able to go to the bathroom where we found her. Smith had several scratches and bruises across her body. EPD Crime Scene Unit was called to the scene to document her injuries. According to witnesses on scene, the listed vehicle was north bound on Burkhardt at Virginia. Smith attempted to get out of the vehicle. Pressley grabbed a hold of Smith and attempted to pull her back into the truck. Pressley was transported to Vanderburgh County Correction Center and booked under the above charges. Protected Victim VICTIM of Correction- Sex Offender Fail To Possess Indiana Drivers Lic (C), between 16:41, 09/06/2021 and 16:42, 09/06/2021. Reported: 09/06/2021. Officers were parked in the median on US Hwy 41 in a fully marked police vehicle observing traffic. Officers observed the listed vehicle traveling at a high rate of speed and pulled out behind the vehicle. Officers paced the vehicle and observed it traveling at least 51 mph in a 40 mph zone. Officers initiated a traffic stop on the vehicle. The driver of the vehicle was identified. Officers ran the offender on the car's MCT computer system and learned the driver was a sexually violent predator who must possess a valid form of a state identification card. The driver did not have a valid form of a state identification card on his persons. The offender's driver's status also showed a status of "revoked". The offender was placed into handcuffs and transported to VCCC where he was booked on the listed charge. The offender was also cited for speeding and driving on a suspended license.	BLAIR, J.

Reported: 09/06/2021. No victims listed. The RP called officers in reference to issues that she was having with her ex-husband, David Parker, and their children in common. There have been several documented runs involving both parties. Jennifer advised officers that there have been several items of concern that have happened since the last time that she spoke with officers that she requested by documented. Jennifer stated that her daughter has advised her that David has shown her two different letters on DCS letterhead that Jennifer believes David has falsified. The first letter that Jennifer was advised of she contacted a Rachel with DCS, the involved DCS case worker, who advised that there was no such letter that had originated from DCS. The second letter involved Jennifer's boyfriend and some obscure agreement where he had "been working with DCS" to pass along information to DCS that Jennifer was providing illegal substances to the children. Jennifer's boyfriend stated that this was in no way factual and they concluded that the letter was more than likely fabricated. Jennifer also stated that David's wife had restricted Jennifer's access to both of the children's phone that she had purchased for them. Jennifer stated that she bought the phones, pays the bills, and that David's wife had changed the phones to where she can no longer access the devices remotely. Jennifer stated that she has been advised that David is also telling all of her children's friends that she is a drug user so that they will not allow their kids over to her house to visit her children. She stated that he is also sending edited videos to both family and relatives that negatively represent her. Jennifer also stated that last weekend, around September 3rd, there was an incident at St. Vincent where security had to intervene. Jennifer stated that David had attempted to run her over with his vehicle and that he even later told their daughter that he considered running her over. This occurred after an extremely vocal argument in which Jennifer stated that David was screaming at her. Officers advised Jennifer that they could document these occurrences and that most of the things she is concerned with will be pertinent in civil court.	MALCOMSON, J.
