LW 2117026 Found Property	Found Property (C), at 1417 E Eichel Ave, Evansville, IN, between 03:00, 09/12/2021 and 03:10, 09/12/2021. Reported: 09/12/2021. No victims listed. I, Officer Rosenthal, was dispatched in reference to a vehicle blocking the reporters driveway. I arrived and spoke to the reporter. They stated that there were two people in this vehicle that ran out of gas in the drivethru of Taco Bell. They were told to move so they pushed it forward. This moved the vehicle into a position where it was blocking a portion of the reporters driveway and was sticking out onto Eichel Road. I attempted to contact the registered owner with the phone number that was on file, but no one answered. There was no one inside the vehicle when I arrived on scene. One of the doors on the vehicle was unlocked. I inventoried the vehicle prior to towing in accordance with EPD Operational Guidelines. I located drug paraphernalia with residue inside the vehicle. The vehicle was towed to 1501 N Evans Ave by Tri-State Towing.		ROSENTHAL, J. B.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 2117057	Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possess Methamphetamine (C), at 1100 N Garvin St, Evansville, IN, on 09/12/2021, 15:08. Reported: 09/12/2021.		NEIGHBORS, D.
Controlled Substance- Possess Methamphetamine	Officers were patrolling the area of 1200 N Governor Street where we ran a plate that did not come back to what was shown in the BMV database and was inactive. Officers stopped the vehicle for false plates. The driver did not have insurance present for the vehicle or have a license on his person at the time. Officers arrested the driver for driving without ever receiving a license and no proof of insurance with a prior conviction. Officers got consent to search the passenger of the vehicle and found what appeared to be a crystal-like substance in a clear baggie. The passenger was later arrested for possession of methamphetamine after the crystal-like substance field tested positive for meth. Both the driver and passenger were arrested and booked at the Vanderburgh County Jail.
LW 2117064	Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possess Cocaine Or Narcotic Drug (C), at 398 Se Riverside Dr/cherry St, Evansville, IN, between 16:17, 09/12/2021 and 16:40, 09/12/2021. Reported: 09/12/2021.		TEVAULT, M. M.
Controlled Substance- Possess Cocaine Or Narcotic Drug	On 09/12/2021 officers were on routine patrol in a full marked patrol car. Officers observed a black passenger car turn right onto SE Riverside. The driver of the vehicle failed to signal 200 feet prior to making the turn. Officers approached the vehicle and could smell the odor of marijuana emitting from the vehicle. The driver and passenger was asked to step out of the vehicle. Officers then found illegal narcotics inside the vehicle and in the passenger's purse.
LW 2117072	Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possession Schedule I, Ii, Iii, Iv, V (C), at 2009 Maxwell Ave, Evansville, IN, on 09/12/2021, 18:30. Reported: 09/12/2021.		HASTINGS, M. J.
Controlled Substance- Possession Schedule I, Ii, Iii, Iv, V	On the listed date, I, Officer Hastings, was patrolling north on Weinbach Ave from Maxwell Ave when I observed a blue Ford Taurus south on Weinbach Ave traveling at a high rate of speed. I activated my in-car mounted radar and it showed the Ford traveling 50mph in a posted 30mph zone. I turned around on the vehicle as it was preparing to turn east on Maxwell Ave. As I turned onto Maxwell Ave with my emergency lights activated, I no longer saw the Ford. I then looked off to the south and in the parking lot of 2009 Maxwell Ave I observed the driver, later identified as the offender by his driver's license, parking the Ford. I pulled into the parking lot behind the Ford and approached the vehicle. I observed the offender was sitting in the driver's seat and was the only occupant of the vehicle. I asked the offender to shut off his vehicle and to extinguish his cigarette he was smoking. I then asked the offender for his driver's license and registration. As the offender was retrieving his vehicle's registration, I observed an open box of wine in the front passenger seat. I also observed what appeared to be wine stains on the offender's shirt. I could smell the odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from the passenger compartment of the offender's vehicle. I asked the offender from the vehicle and once he stepped out he leaned up against his vehicle. I had the offender step away from his vehicle in order to test him on Gaze Nystagmus field test. While standing through my instructions, I observed the offender swaying slightly and observed his eyes were blood shot and glassy. Once the instructions were given and the offender stated he understood, I began the test. The offender failed. Once additional officers arrived, I tested the

I then tested the offender on a portable breath test and the offender showed a breath alcohol content of .154% per 210 liters of breath. I then placed the offender in handcuffs and advised him of the Indiana Implied Consent Warning. The offender submitted and I then read the Miranda Warning. During a search incident to arrest, I found in the offender's left cargo pocket a white round tablet imprinted with "512" on one side and scored on the other. I asked the offender was the tablet was and he stated "aspirin". Officer Meliff took the tablet from me and placed it in an evidence bag. Once in the bag, Officer Meliff handed it to Officer Wellen to identify. Officer Wellen stated he used a pill identifier app on his phone and found the tablet was identified to be oxycodone-acetaminophen with a dosage weight of 5-325mg. Office Wellen said the tablet is a schedule II controlled substance. The offender stated he understood. The offender was transported to the Vanderburgh Co Confinement Center in the transport wagon. Upon my arrival at the confinement center, I walked the offender into the intoxilyzer room where he was tested on the Intox EC/IR-II instrument. The offender failed the tested showing a BrAC of .153% per 210 liters of breath. The offender was housed on the listed charges.	HYNEMAN, J. M.
LW 2117082	Controlled Substance- Possess Methamphetamine	Officers were dispatched to a motor vehicle accident with personal injury. At arrival, Officers smelled the odor of raw marijuana coming from one of the vehicles involved in this accident, a gray 2014 Ford Focus. During a search of the vehicle, officers located a clear jar containing a plant like substance in the rear of the vehicle. The plant-like substance later field tested positive for THC and had a field weight of two grams. The offender was issued a misdemeanor citation. Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possess Methamphetamine (C), at 4530 N First Ave, Evansville, IN, between 21:28, 09/12/2021 and 21:37, 09/12/2021. Reported: 09/12/2021. On the listed date, I, Officer Hastings, responded to a complaint of a male subject refusing to leave the Planet Fitness Health Center. Upon arrival, I located the subject, later identified as the offender, in the bathroom toilet stall. I advised the offender of my presence and advised him he would need to vacate the location. I then walked the offender out of the business and obtained his information. When I ran the offender's information I discovered he had a felony warrant for his arrest. I took the offender into custody and I asked the offender if he had anything on his person that could harm or if he had narcotics on his person. The offender was advised I was going to search his person incident to arrest, but wasn't wanting to get hurt. The offender stated he had a pipe and "meth rock back there". The offender pointed to his anal region. I then searched the area and found a glass pipe with burnt residue on one end and a paper wrapper that contained a crystal type rock. I secured the items and evidence and the offender was transported to the Vanderburgh Co Confinement Center by the transport wagon. Once at the jail, I inventoried the offender's property and found a prescription bottle that contained to different pills. One of the pills went with the labeled bottle, but there was a pink oval tablet imprinted with "798" on one side that was in the original container. The tablets were removed and identified as divalproex sodium using a pill identifier	HASTINGS, M. J.
