The victim was given a case number and given information on how to follow up with charges with the prosecutor's office. Incident Rpt - Chins (C), at 6625 E Lloyd Expy, Evansville, IN, between 16:00, 09/19/2021 and 17:00, 09/19/2021. Reported: 09/19/2021. No victims listed. Officers were dispatched to 6625 E Lloyd Expy in reference to a check welfare. Prior to this run, there was a BOL put out for the same vehicle involved in the check welfare. The BOL read a female driving a blue jeep with kids in the vehicle was driving recklessly and almost crashed. The caller for the check welfare advised dispatch a female in a black dress had "slammed" a child and the child was in the front seat of the vehicle honking the horn. The caller also advised there were two other kids in the back seat. When officers arrived, contact was made with the caller and he advised the female and the children had left the jeep and were last seen in the area of the Fresh Market. Officers approached the jeep (IN In God We Trust plate SBA942) and observed the front driver's door open, the vehicle left unsecured, and no one in or around the vehicle. Officers drove to the Fresh Market and located the female, later identified as Amanda Evrard, in the breeze way placing items into a shopping cart. When officers originally asked Amanda where her children were, she advised her children were adults. After asking several more times and questioning Amanda about the presence of young children at her vehicle, she stated she had two of her daughters with her and one of their friends. The girls were 2 years old, 11 years old, and 12 years old. When Amanda was asked where the children were she could not say. Amanda appeared to possibly be impaired, which she denied and claimed she was just tired and going through some personal things. Amanda gave conflicting information about the children and continued to change her story about where they might be and what they were wearing. Ultimately, the children were located in a Halloween store nearby and reunited with Amanda. Throughout this process of attempting to locate the children, Amanda maintained a lack of concern for the whereabouts of the children and their welfare. Due to Amanda's impaired state, her fiance Chad Pruitt was contacted and arrived to take Amanda and the children home. A report was taken to document the incident.		AKER, B. W.
