Reference Cause #:                      Althoff, Cheri Ann (W F, 42) VICTIM of Domestic Battery-adult Know Presence Of Child Less Than 14 (C), at 1405 N Roosevelt Dr, Evansville, IN, between 16:00, 09/28/2021 and 16:15, 09/28/2021. Reported: 09/28/2021. I, Ofc. A. Beaver, was dispatched to a family dispute at 1407 N Roosevelt Dr. Upon my arrival, I spoke with the victim. The victim was claiming that she had just been the victim of domestic battery in front of her children. The victim stated the offender had just the scene about 15 minutes before I arrived. Offices were unable to locate the offender at the time of this report. According to the victim, the offender was her boyfriend. The offender, the victim's three children, and her were on their way back to the listed address from Deaconess Cross Pointe. The victim and offender were arguing about money and how the offender shouldn't be the one driving. The victim stated the argument escalated to the point of the offender slapping her multiple times with the back of his hand, pulling her hair, and scratching her left forearm. The offender also placed his hand around her throat to the point where she was unable to talk. She stated the offender had also pushed her head against the windshield causing it to crack. There was a crack in the windshield of the listed vehicle. Around Boeke/St James Blvd the victim stated she got out of the car and ran back to the listed address. Officers were called shortly after. According to the oldest child in the car, the victim had actually smacked herself in the face and had given herself the injuries presently on her. He stated that she was the one who hit and caused the broken windshield. The eldest did say the offender pushed her ace away from him. According to the second youngest victim, the victim was the one who actually pushed the offender while he was driving. The youngest child in the car stated that there was just an argument between the victim and offender. He was not able to advised if it was ever physical. EPD Crime Scene Unit responded to document injuries. The victim was given a case number for her reference.	BEAVER, A. B.

I told her they can cut any branches that overhang their property, as long as it doesn't damage the tree as a whole. I further stated that, if they continue to go on to the property at 2714 Kathleen Ave, they will be cited for criminal trespass. I explained that in situations like this, if parties aren't willing to fix it themselves, the only thing we can do is enforce existing laws. I explained that crossing the property line to mow or trim branches constitutes trespass. I again spoke to Perez. I explained the small claims process regarding having the cut down branches removed. I also told her that it would be beneficial if she did not allow the property to become overgrown. She had someone there mowing at the time of this report. I informed other officers that work this area of the trespass issue.
