LW 2117879 Confinement	Byers, Brittany Alesia Nicole (B F, 18) VICTIM of Confinement (C), at 1608 W Missouri St, Evansville, IN, between 21:30, 09/23/2021 and 22:10, 09/23/2021. Reported: 09/23/2021. Officers were dispatched to the intersection of Franklin St and Wabash Ave for a domestic violence in progress. The victim stated the offender, her ex boyfriend, was hitting and choking her. She was able to leave his residence (the listed address) and drive away. She stated to dispatch that he was following her in his truck. She stopped at Thornton`s gas station on Rosenberger Ave and he continued westbound on the Lloyd Expressway. Officers made contact with the victim at Thorntons. She stated the offender (boyfriend) and herself had been hanging out all day. They got into an argument over some relationship stuff (she did not wish to go into detail). She told the offender that she did not wish to be in a relationship with him anymore and that upset him. The offender began hitting her cell phone with a bat, causing damage to the screen. The offender grabbed the victim by the throat and pushed her onto the bed. He asked her if they could have sex one more time and she told him no. The offender began using the victim`s cellphone to contact friends and family to say hateful things (his intent was to make them think it was her sending the texts). She attempted to leave the residence, but the offender held the door closed and would not let her leave. She stated she sat there and cried for about 15-20 minutes while he stood in front of the door. The offender turned his back to send more hateful texts and she took off running out the door. The victim entered her vehicle and the offender followed right behind her. He got into the passenger side of the vehicle. He sat there for a minute, and after several requests from the victim, exited the vehicle. She drove away from his residence and contacted a family friend. She looked in her rearview mirror and saw the offender following her. The friend told her to call the police and she did while she was driving away. The offender followed her from the time she called 911 (roughly Franklin St/Wabash Ave), westbound on Lloyd Expressway, to Thorntons (Rosenberger). She stated at that point he went northbound on Rosenberger Ave. The victim did not have visible injuries and refused AMR. The victim was given a case number and advised how to press charges/ seek a protective order.		FRAZIER, R. T.

Officers immediately recognized some of the pills as illegal narcotics, and placed both the passenger, and Karla, the driver, into custody. Officers read both occupants the Miranda warning on their department-issued body-worn camera, to which they both stated they understood and wished to speak with us. I asked Karla what the pills were and she stated that they were Loritab and Valium, which she did not have a prescription for. While searching the purse, Officers also located a blue glass pipe with burnt residue, which based upon their training and experience, they immediately recognized it as drug paraphernalia that is commonly used to ingest illegal drugs. Karla stated that the pipe was hers, and everything inside of the pink bag was hers. The driver was taken to the hospital for medical clearance, and then transported to the Vanderburgh County Jail and booked on the above listed charges. The passenger was released from the scene. While at the jail, the pills were identified using the Drugs.com pill idenitifer tool. There were four white pills with the imprint "RP10325", which is Acetaminophen and Oxycodone Hydrochloride, a Schedule II drug and is classified as a Narcotic. There also were three white circular pills in the clear container, with the imprint "AN627", which is Tramadol Hydrochloride, which is a narcotic, and is a schedule IV controlled substance. In the container there were four green circular pills with the imprint "MYLAN 477", which is Diazepam, which a schedule IV controlled substance. The container also had twenty-two white pills, with the imprint "M367", which is Acetaminophen and Hydrocodone, which is a Schedule II controlled substance, and is classified as a narcotic. The brown cigarello with burnt leafy substance inside, field tested positive for synthetic cannabinoids. All of the pills, the two brown cigarettos, and the blue glass pipe were all properly labeled, bagged, and dropped into evidence at the jail.		HOEHN, L. D.
