Tot.Est.Loss: $800. Victim stated that her son recently passed away and she came to check on the house today. Victim stated that the flat screen tv in the living room was missing today when she arrived here. The victim described the tv as a 70" flat screen that was silver and black in color. The home has a previously broken rear window that may have been an entry point for the suspects since there was no sign of any forced entry. The victim stated that the TV was so large they would have had to exit the front door of the home since the rear door has been barricaded. I spoke to neighbors across the street who have a camera on the front of their house that points at the residence that was burglarized. They had video of the suspects car and described the offender as a white female, early 30`s, long blonde/white hair, "pot marks" all over her face and thin build. The neighbors stated that she arrived in a dark blue, two door, passenger car. The neighbors saw her trying to gain entry into the home and they approached her and asked what she was doing. The neighbors stated that a second white female was with her but she appeared to be standing back. The offender asked the neighbors if they could her break into the home because it was her boyfriends house. The neighbors told her no and stated they would call the police. The offenders then left in the car but their camera picked up the vehicle driving by the home several more times. The neighbors did not have video of anyone exiting the home with the tv. The victim was given a case number and told how to proceed.		SEIBERT, C. S.
