LW 2118011	Without Licen Controlled Substance- Possess Methamphetamine Issued a summons and released. UTT# 82E003426 Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possess Methamphetamine (C), at 5499 N First Ave/hanover Rd, Evansville, IN, between 15:40, 09/25/2021 and 15:46, 09/25/2021. Reported: 09/25/2021. Officers R. Eagleson and A. Smith were in the area of First Avenue and Diamond Avenue on routine patrol. Officers observed a gray Dodge Stratus (Indiana license plate: 345RLT) driving north-bound directly in front of them. Officers noticed that the vehicle was traveling at a high rate of speed for the area, so they started pacing the vehicle. Officers observed the vehicle traveling north-bound on First Avenue at 37mph in a 25mph posted zone. Additionally, Officers observed that the front windshield of the vehicle was cracked, presenting a possible safety hazard. Officers initiated a traffic stop at the intersection of N First Avenue and Hanover Road. Officers approached the vehicle and made contact with the driver (offender), the sole occupant of the vehicle. Officers smelled the odor of burnt marijuana emanating from the vehicle. They knew the smell was marijuana based on their training and experience. Officers had the offender exit the vehicle. Officers searched the vehicle and located two baggies of a crystalline substance, a plant-like substance contained in a burnt paper roll, and a metal pipe containing residue. Officers believed the substances were methamphetamine, marijuana, and paraphernalia based on their training and experience. The offender was read the Miranda Warning, advised she understood her rights, and agreed to speak with Officers. The offender admitted that the crystal substance was methamphetamine that she had purchased today for $150.00 in Boonville. She also advised that she smokes marijuana and informed us of its location in the vehicle. Officers arrested and transported the offender to the Vanderburgh County Jail under the listed charges. The substances field tested positive for methamphetamine and marijuana. The evidence was placed in the secure narcotics evidence locker at the Vanderburgh County Jail. Officers` body-worn cameras were activated and recording throughout the investigation.		EAGLESON, R. C.
LW 2118015	Family Offense- Invasion Of Privacy Rickabaugh, Jennie Mae (W F, 73) VICTIM of Family Offense- Invasion Of Privacy (C), at 612 Baker Ave, Evansville, IN, between 17:30, 09/25/2021 and 17:34, 09/25/2021. Reported: 09/25/2021. At the listed date and time, Officers were dispatched to 612 Baker Ave in response to a harassment in progress. The reporter stated that her brother was on scene and there was a no contact order in place. The reporter also advised that her brother was getting in her mother`s face and she was afraid it would turn physical. Officers arrived and could observe the possible suspect in the house and the other involved parties outside. Officers spoke to everyone involved and were able to ascertain that there was an active protective order in place protecting the mother from the suspect. The possible suspect was then placed into custody without incident. He was then transported to VCC for the listed charge. The suspect does have a prior conviction for invasion of privacy on the same victim.		BEARD, J. A.

LW 2118027 Weapon/instrument Of Violence- Possess Handgun Without Licen	bartender told a male who was causing problems to leave. The male refused to leave and went out and sat on the patio of the business. The male yelled profanities at everyone on the patio and was told to be quiet by officers several times. We took him around the corner of the business but he continued to yell and patrons kept coming to the edge to see what was going on. The male had the odor of alcoholic beverages, poor balance, and admitted to being "dirty". The male was taken to jail to be booked. While being taken out of the holding cell the male told the officer that he was going to kill him. Society VICTIM of Weapon/instrument Of Violence- Possess Handgun Without Licen (C), at 398 S Us Hwy 41/e Walnut St, Evansville, IN, between 19:40, 09/25/2021 and 19:41, 09/25/2021. Reported: 09/25/2021. Officers were on routine patrol when we observed a blue Ford Fusion (IN LIC#EE4504), with a broken driver`s side taillight that was emitting a white light. Officers then observed the Ford Fusion fail to utilize its turn signal while turning north onto US Hwy 41. Officers initiated a traffic stop near the intersection of US Hwy 41 and Walnut St., and made contact with the driver. Officers ran the driver`s Indiana driver status, and it came back suspended. Officers then asked the driver, to exit the vehicle, due to her license being suspended and asked for consent to search the vehicle, to which the driver stated that we could. Officers had the passenger, , exit the vehicle. Officers then located on the front seat passenger floorboard, a blue backpack that was leaned against the center console. Officers opened the blue backpack, and in the main compartment, there was a Taurus handgun with an extended magazine. As Officers were placing Sargent into custody, Sargent stated that "she ain`t got nothing to do with it, the backpack is mine, it is mine". Officers then read Sargent the Miranda Warning on their department-issued body-camera, to which he stated he understood. Officers then asked Sargent if the gun was his, and he stated that it is not hers. Officers then asked Sargent if he had his concealed carry permit, to which Sargent shook his head at Officers from side to side. Officers then asked Sargent if the only thing inside the blue bag was the gun, and Sargent stated yes. Inside the blue bag, Officers located a loaded, Taurus model G3C 9mm, with an extended magazine, which contained (23) 9mm rounds. The driver was able to find a valid driver, was given a warning for improper tail light and driving while suspended, and was released from the scene. Sargent was transported to the Vanderburgh County Jail via the transport wagon, and was booked in on the above charge. The Taurus 9mm handgun, magazine, and (23) 9mm rounds that were inside the magazine, were properly bagged, labeled, and dropped into evidence at EPD headquarters.		MANSFIELD, M.

LW 2118041 Alcoholic Beverage- Public Intoxication By Alcohol	Officers were dispatched to a person with a gun at the Corner Pocket (1819 N Fulton). A Vanderburgh County Deputy located two males arguing then one suddenly ran from law enforcement while the other stayed behind. The offender, Jessie Hunter, remained behind and was taken into custody. The deputy reported after he gave commands to the subjects, he heard what sounded like a gun hit the ground but was not sure where it was at the time being since he was trying to keep the fleeing suspect in view. Officers located a handgun underneath a GMC Yukon approximately two feet away from Hunter's location. The other suspect was located and detained without incident, then admitted to possession of the handgun. Hunter was determined to be extremely intoxicated. Hunter was slurring his words with extreme aggression. Hunter made several loud explicit statements towards officers. Hunter continued with an extremely agitated and intoxicated attitude throughout the entire interaction. Hunter was rarely coherent with his statements. Jessie was located on a public sidewalk in front of 1118 Uhlhorn Street.	Society VICTIM of Alcoholic Beverage- Public Intoxication By Alcohol (C), at 1118 Uhlhorn St, Evansville, IN, on 09/26/2021, 01:33.
