Theft- Shoplifting - Nibrs	Officers were dispatched to 401 N. Burkhardt Rd., Walmart East, for a theft in progress. Central Dispatch advised Asset Protection reported two females had fled from their apprehension and had left the store with approximately $150 worth of merchandise without providing payment. Young, with Asset Protection, reported the females left in a black or dark grey Ford model hatchback vehicle. He stated the vehicle had tinted windows, the passenger side mirror was missing, and the left brake light was out. The vehicle was last seen traveling westbound on E. Virginia St. from Walmart.
	Officers arrived in the area, but were not able to locate the females or the above described vehicle. I met with Young to obtain more information regarding the theft. Young stated he observed one of the females in the store switching UPC code tags on items so that she could pay a lesser price than the purchase price of items. He then observed the other female placing an UPC code tag on her finger and using this tag to scan items at the self-checkout register instead of scanning the actual UPC code tags on the items.
	Young reported the females finished incorrectly scanning their items and began to exit the store without paying the full price for all of their items. Young stated he attempted to stop the females as they were exiting the store, to which he reported one of the females stated she paid for all of her items. Young stated the females then continued to exit the store after taking some of their items and left in the above described vehicle.
	The total amount of the items the females had in their cart upon exiting the store equaled to $271.73 and they only paid at total of $94.81 due to using the incorrect UPC code tags on some of the items.
	Young was able to recover some of the items, but not all of the items. He was provided with a case number.
	The UPC code tags the females used to decrease the amount paid for their items and the receipts provided by Young were taken to EPD Headquarters and entered into evidence.

Reported: 09/02/2021. Officers were on routine patrol when they observed a vehicle with no plate light traveling south on US Hwy 41. Officers initiated a traffic stop on the listed vehicle. Officers asked the driver if there were any drugs inside the vehicle. The driver stated he typically has weed inside the car. Officers asked the driver to exit the vehicle. Once out of the vehicle, officers asked the driver for consent to search. The driver consented. Officers located 4.5 pills which were later identified as acetaminophen and oxycodone or Percocet. Officers placed the driver into handcuffs, called for the wagon, and read him the Miranda warning. The driver stated he understood his rights and agreed to speak with us. Officers also called for Tristate Towing as the vehicle was a hazard parked on the side of the highway and there was not a licensed driver to take possession of it. Officers then began to inventory the vehicle. Inside the door panel, officers located a swisher sweet bag with a green leafy substance inside. Based on officers training and experience, they immediatley recognized it as marijuana. The substance had a field weight of 8.12 grams and field tested positive for THC. Officers also located a clear baggie with a green leafy substance in the center console. Based on officers training and experience, they immediatley recognized it as marijuana. The substance had a field weight of 8.44 grams and field tested positive for THC. Officers also located a clear baggie with long white mushrooms inside. The driver told officers they were psychedelic mushrooms. The mushrooms had a field weight of 9.52 grams and field tested positive for Psilocybin. Psilocybin is classified as a schedule I narcotic. Lastly, the drivers told officers his firearm was located in the trunk of the vehicle. The driver stated he did not have a license to carry it, but he legally purchased the gun from Rural King and the firearm was in his name. Officers located the firearm and secured it. The driver was taken to VCCC and booked on the listed charges. All substances retrieved were properly bagged, labeled, and submitted into evidence at VCCC. The firearm was also properly stored and placed into evidence at EPD headquarters.		BLAIR, J.

Reported: 09/02/2021. On 09-02-2021 officer`s were patrolling near the intersection of Covert Ave and S Green River Rd. An ambulance was running code 3 (Lights and sirens), traveling South-bound on S Green River Rd. The ambulance approached the intersection of Covert Ave and all traffic came to a stop. A Nissan passenger car in front of us on Pollack, who was at a complete stop, started to accelerate through a green light, and proceeded East, through the intersection without any attempt to yield to the ambulance. While doing so, the ambulance had to stop and wait for the vehicle to proceed through the intersection before it could continue to their run. The vehicle then merged to the right to let the ambulance pass by. Officers activated their overhead lights and sirens to initiate a traffic stop on the Nissan. The Nissan failed to pull over and contained to drive East-bound on Covert Ave. The vehicle traveled over a block with officer`s behind them without stopping. The vehicle finally came to a stop. The driver of the vehicle was identified as Kaeyoni Phillips. Before approaching the vehicle, music could be heard blaring coming from inside of Phillips vehicle, even though the windows were all rolled up. While talking with the driver, the odor of burnt marijuana could be smelled coming from inside of her vehicle. Kaeyoni was asked to step out of the vehicle and walk back towards the front of the officer`s patrol vehicle before being placed into handcuffs. Officer Malcomson found a silver grinder with a green leafy substance that was consistant with marijuana inside of the center console. Officer Winn advised Phillips of her Miranda Rights and she agreed to talk with officers.		WINN, K. M.

Strangulation	On 09/02/2021 officers were dispatched to 1127 Lincoln Ave in reference to a disorderly conduct. Officers arrived on scene and spoke with victim #1, Martha, and victim #2, Martha`s 10 year old son. Martha stated that her and the offender, her boyfriend of 10 months, were arguing. Martha stated that she confronted the offender about cheating on her and he then became angry. Martha stated that she told the offender to leave and he then placed one hand around her throat and squeezed, causing her breathing to be restricted. Martha stated she then pushed the offender off of her. Martha stated that her 10 year old son was in the room and observed the offender grab her neck. The juvenile then grabbed a kitchen knife to protect Martha. The 10 year old then stood by while holding the knife and began an audio recording of the offender and Martha arguing. In the recording officers could hear a male voice state "I just choked you out didn`t I". The male voice in the recording then says that he will cut the juveniles throat all the way to his face. Martha and her son both stated that the male voice in the recording was the offender. The 10 year old son stated that he was in fear that the offender would carry out the threat. Martha stated the offender then attempted to leave with a phone that belonged to her so she followed him outside. Martha stated that the offender also stated that he would stab her multiple times, and that he would cut her throat. Martha stated that she was in fear that the offender would attempt to follow through with this threat. Martha stated that she attempted to reach into the offender`s vehicle to get the phone and the offender then pushed her and wrestled her out of the vehicle. Martha said this caused multiple marks and scratches on her arms, shoulders, and neck. The offender was no longer on scene when officers arrived. Martha advised officers of his vehicle description and a possible address that he may go. Officers checked the area and the provided address for the offender, and he was not located at the time of this report. I observed multiple scratches and marks on Martha`s arms, shoulders, and neck. Crime scene was called to the scene to photograph Martha`s injuries. Martha was provided a case number, and advised to follow up with domestic violence detectives within 3 business days.

Reported: 09/02/2021. Officers were dispatched to 313 Maxwell Avenue, apartment A, in regard to a general compliant. I met with the victim. The victim advised two days ago (08/31/2021) he came home between 1600 and 1730 and noticed a black male (offender) running to the south of his property from near where he had parked his truck. The offender was laughing as he was running away. The victim looked at his truck and noticed dog feces had been smashed onto his truck bed covering. He also advised that the truck was covered in an unknown sticky substance. I observed the truck bed cover was covered in an unknown sticky substance. The victim advised he was able to remove the dog feces, but not even a car wash would remove the sticky substance. I asked the victim why the offender would do this. The victim mentioned that the offender lives directly behind him at Enlow Avenue. The property to the east of Enlow is currently abandoned. The offender uses the abandoned property's back yard to let his dogs out. The victim said that his own dogs would run up to the fence and play with the offender's dogs. The victim told the offender that he should not be letting his dogs out of the abandoned property's yard. The offender did not respond nicely to the victim and they got into a verbal argument. Since then, the offender has been hostile with the victim anytime they are both outside. The victim does not know the offender's name.
