Reported: 09/09/2021. Tot.Est.Loss: $159. Officers were dispatched for shoplifters at the Walmart at 401 N Burkhardt Rd. On arrival the loss prevention officer (hereafter LPO) had one male (Colt Nall) and one female offender (Debra McKnight) in custody. LPO said he observed them on the sales floor placing items by the backpack in the cart and then acting erratically. As the LPO observed Nall concealed items inside the backpack in the automotive section. Nall and McKnight then proceeded to the checkout. They then "tag-switched" several items, a process where they scanned a less expensive barcade in the place of higher value items to reduce the total payment due. They also did not make payment for the concealed items. Nall and McKnight then passed all points of sale and exited the store via the General Merchandise (west) doors. LPO made contact with the suspects in the GM vestibule and asked them to come with him to the loss prevention office to which they complied. The LPO then recovered the concealed, stolen merchandise as well as the items that were tag-switched.
