LW 2116919 Domestic Battery-simple Assault	RESTRICTED VICTIM of Domestic Battery-simple Assault (C), at 840 E Negley Ave, Evansville, IN, between 08:00, 08/29/2021 and 21:00, 08/29/2021. Reported: 09/10/2021. On 09/09/2021, at approximately 10:30 hours, an EPD Officer was working off-duty at Evansville Teacher's Federal Credit Union, located at 4905 University Drive, and observed a female employee with an apparent facial injury consistent with being battered. The officer spoke with the employee, identified as the victim, and learned an unreported domestic violence incident had occurred the evening of 08/29/2021 at an address on E Negley Avenue. The victim reported she and her boyfriend / ex-boyfriend, identified as the offender, had been in an intimate relationship for approximately 2 months and the offender was in the process of moving into her residence on Bryan Road. The morning of 08/29/2021, the victim reported she and the offender were at Bokeh Lounge, located at 1007 Parrett Street, as part of a breakfast / brunch club. She reported musicians were playing jazz music and during a break, she spoke with them. The musicians reportedly allowed her to play a few instruments after the victim stated she had formerly learned to play them. She stated the music playing did not go so well and it reportedly embarrassed her boyfriend, the offender. A short time later, the musicians continued playing and the victim reportedly sang karaoke, which further embarrassed the offender. After the victim left the stage, the offender reportedly threw keys at her and told her he was embarrassed to be seen with her. The two had a verbal altercation and the offender reportedly took an Uber to his residence, located on E Negley Avenue. The victim also returned to her residence, located on Bryan Road. That same evening, the victim picked-up her children and reportedly went by the offender's residence on E Negley Avenue in order to talk about what had occurred earlier that morning. The offender reportedly allowed the victim and her two young children into his home and the children watched shows on the victim's phone while she laid down with the offender on his bed to discuss the earlier incident. A short while later, the victim heard the front door open and she exited the room to find her daughter trying to exit the home. She stated it was getting late and they were not really speaking anyway, so she decided to leave. The victim reportedly exited the offender's home, buckled her children in her vehicle and realized she had left her eyeglasses on the nightstand of the offender's		THIRY, K. She knocked and the offender reportedly answered the door as if he was annoyed. She reportedly explained she had left her eyeglasses on his nightstand, which he did not believe. After some discussion, the offender apparently allowed the victim into the home. It was then, however, the offender reportedly slammed the front door on the victim's body and grabbed her by her arm, pulling her into the residence. She stated there was a physical altercation and the offender grabbed her by her shirt, created a little space and then punched her on her left eye. She reported the offender immediately stated, "Why did you make me do that?" After some continued fighting, she was able to leave the residence. Although the children were in the vehicle at the time of the incident, the victim stated her son realized her face was injured when she returned to the vehicle. The victim's left eye was reportedly badly swollen and closed shut. She stated she called-in to work the following day, 08/30/2021, to avoid being seen, which was confirmed by her employer. She sent photographs to other employees. She still had the photographs and was going to save them. On yesterday's date, 09/09/2021, the victim sought and received an emergency protective order against the offender. The offender, however, had not yet been served. The victim had the order with her, officers reviewed it and called the offender to serve him. Officers were successful making contact with the offender and he stated he understood the order, along with the date to report to court in October 2021. The victim's eye was still quite bruised, she reported her face still hurt and was considering getting a facial scan to rule out a broken / fractured orbital bone. The EPD Crime Scene Unit (CSU) was requested to take photographs of the victim's injuries. The victim also reported she would provide the photographs she had saved to the assigned investigator. A report was submitted to the EPD Domestic Violence Investigation Unit for follow-up, no arrests were made at time of this report.	Society VICTIM of Motor Vehicle- Operating A Vehicle While Intoxicated (C), at 7101 E Indiana St, Evansville, IN, on 09/10/2021, 10:05.
