Reported: 10/01/2021. Officers were dispatched to 1422 Adams Avenue, apartment A, in reference to a medical emergency response. Central Dispatch advised that AMR was already on scene, and requested Officers because the patient was uncooperative, and drug use was suspected. Officers arrived and observed Shayla Clark on the ground next to the bed, and she was flailing her arms and legs, and had foam coming out of her mouth. Clark's breathing was labored and her pupils were pinpoint, which is consistent with an overdose. After Clark was loaded onto the gurney, Officers noticed directly next to the bed on the floor where Clark was located, in plain view, a clear baggie with a white crystalline substance, which based upon their training and experience, immediately recognized it as methamphetamine. On top of the dresser, there was a cut straw that had a white crystalline substance inside of it, which based upon the Officer's training and experience, they immediately		MANSFIELD, M.

The narcotics and paraphernalia were collected and bagged. Officers then spoke to the homeowner, who informed Officers that Clark had an active Felony warrant for her arrest out of Vanderburgh County, which was confirmed via NCIC. The homeowner stated that she had been letting Clark stay in the room, and that she was the sole occupant for the past three days. Clark was transported to St. Vincent hospital for medical clearance, where she was eventually admitted. Officers returned to EPD Headquarters in order to file formal charges. While at EPD HQ, the white crystalline powder substance was weighed on a zeroed digital scale, and showed a field weight of 4.5 grams. The white crystalline powder found inside the clear baggie was field tested using the NARK II Methamphetamine/MDMA test kit, and yielded a positive for methamphetamine. The white crystalline powder found inside the cut straw was field tested using the NARK II Methamphetamine/MDMA test kit, and yielded a positive for methamphetamine. The clear baggie with a white crystalline substance, the cut straw with residue, and the clear glass pipe with burnt residue were properly bagged, labeled, and dropped into evidence at EPD headquarters.		TEVAULT, M. Reported: 10/01/2021. Officers were dispatched to 6200 Country Lane regarding a general complaint. The general complaint was related to an incident officers responded to at the same residence earlier in the day. The victim and the offender had a dispute over the terms of mutual protective orders taken out against each other. The victim had a previous divorce decree taken out against the offender stating he had rights to the residence. Today, both the victim and the offender took out a protective order against each other. Officers required the offender to leave and advised her to cease all communication and contact with the victim and the property as stipulated in the protective order. The victim called in after officers left and stated to dispatch the offender`s juvenile son walked into the victims house without permission. When the victim asked the juvenile what he was doing, he stated that his mom sent him to get his and her belongings. This went against the protective order. Officers contacted the offender and advised her to cease sending people on her behalf to retrieve any property from the address or to contact the victim. She was advised this is a violation of the protective order. The victim was given an incident number. At the time, the victim was unable to give the original cause number for his protective order against the offender, but he stated he will call and provide it to the EPD records office.		COYLE, W. LW 2118456 Forgery	Officers were dispatched to 4745 Covert Ave in reference to a Harassment in Progress. While speaking with the original caller, who was the victim of the original incident, the offender of that incident exited his apartment building to speak to officers. While speaking to that individual about the original incident, he stated there was a separate incident going on between this male, now the victim of this incident and the original female caller, who is the offender. The victim stated the offender has been following him for several days and earlier today, the offender followed the victim to the Chuckles gas station at Covert Ave/Green River Rd. The victim stated at the gas station, the offender took pictures of the license plate on his vehicle then followed the victim to the Hardees on Covert Ave. The victim said he confronted the offender at the Hardees in regards to following him. The victim stated the offender denied the accusation and ended up calling the police because the victim confronted her. The victim stated in regards to the original incident at this location (reference case number 21-18447), he believed when he stepped out of his apartment building the offender had been following him again and that was why she almost hit him with her vehicle, in his opinion. The victim stated he wished to pursue charges against the offender for following him around. The offender again denied any claims of following the victim when asked by officers. The victim was given a case number, advised on how to begin the process of obtaining a protective order, and a report was completed. Weber, Rhonda F. Reported: 10/01/2021. Officers were dispatched to the listed address for suspicious circumstances. The caller stated she was called to the listed address to make key for a vehicle for a subject. The caller stated she noticed inconsistencies with the subject explaining the ownership of the vehicle. The subject stated he bought a vehicle from the resident of the listed address shortly before his death. The family of the deceased stated the subject had stolen the vehicle's title and information sometime last month. The family stated the deceased had been talking with the subject to sell the vehicle, but never did because the subject failed to pay for the vehicle. The caller stated when she spoke with the subject today, he seemed agitated that she would not make him a key. The caller stated the subject showed her a copy of the signed title and noticed the signature was vastly different from the signature found on the deceased's ID card. The family also agreed that they believed the signature on the title was not that of the deceased. The caller stated the subject quickly left when she threatened to call the police. The family towed the vehicle off the property to their address. The landlord was also enroute to change all the lock on the house. A report was taken and the caller and family were both given case numbers.	TREMBCZYNSKI,
