LW 2118345 Fraud	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor Tuley, Mary Jane (W F, 87) VICTIM of Fraud (C), at 1800 N Dexter Ave, Evansville, IN, between 09:29, 09/02/2021 and 09:29, 09/30/2021. Reported: 09/30/2021. Tot.Est.Loss: $1,000. The victim states she began conversating at length with a male that called her phone in early September 2021. The date was approximately 09/02/21. The victim said the male (offender) claimed his name was Michael Anderson and he was from Reader`s Digest Magazine. The elderly female said she was skeptical but spent a lot of time and numerous calls speaking with the offender. The offender reportedly told the victim that she was the winner of a $4,000,000 sweepstakes. The offender demanded that the money could not be released without a processing fee. The offender provided the victim with a contact number of 347-861-6643. This number is through a TextNow application. The victim as instructed on 09/20/21 bought a Secure Spend Gift Card at Dollar General Morgan Ave. The victim provided the code to the gift card by phone. The victim as instructed on 09/22/21 bough a second Secure Spend Card at Dollar General Morgan Ave. The victim provided the code to gift card by phone. The offender then demanded he needed $6,000 to release the millions to the victim. The victim reported her loss and concern on 09/29/21 to EPD Financial Crimes Unit. The victim was advised to cease all contact and that this was a scam. I, Sgt. Arbaugh called the phone number provided. The male identified himself as Michael Anderson. From experience the male used the english vernacular and dialect of a male from India. I did not tell the offender I was with the Evansville Police Department. The offender quickly said he required $6,000 from the victim. The offender asked if I would assist the victim in sending additional gift cards. I then identified myself as a law enforcement officer of the Evansville Indiana Police Department. The offender asked for my badge number and said his manager would be filing a complaint against me. The offender disconnected and will not answer repeated return calls. The victim has also sent $1,000 by gift cards for another international scam possibly related to the same group. EPD Financial Crimes Unit has counseled the women on fraud prevention. EPD FCU will attempt to subpoena the phone number records of the TextNow number provided. [09/30/2021 10:41, WARBAUGH, 1650, EPD]	ARBAUGH, W. R.

I ran the victim`s name in NCIC and learned that he did in fact have an active protective order against the offender (Cause number: 82D07-2009-PO-003779; Expiration: 03/10/2023). I also observed on the offender`s RMS name page that he had been barred/banned for life from 3207 W Virginia Street, per Officer McCrarey. The victim has security cameras facing from his house toward the east, which showed the offender possibly walking onto the victim`s property (depending on where the disputed property line actually falls). The victim said he was outside in his yard powerwashing when he saw the offender make some sort of body language gesture at him while mumbling something under his breath. The victim believed that whatever the offender mumbled under his breath was directed to him. The victim advised that he wanted to press charges against the offender, he would need to visit the prosecutor`s office. Wagner, Kenneth D. (W M, 42) VICTIM of Motor Vehicle- Leaving The Scene Of A Crash- Property Damage (C), at 401 N Burkhardt Rd, Evansville, IN, between 14:35, 09/30/2021 and 14:39, 09/30/2021. Reported: 09/30/2021.		PAPE, N. A.
Motor Vehicle- Leaving The Scene Of A Crash- Property Damage	On 9/30/2021 I was dispatched to a hit and run at 401 N Burkhardt Rd (Walmart East). I arrived and spoke to the reporter who stated that she saw a newer model white extended cab Ford truck traveling south bound in row 6 of the Walmart parking lot. The truck then turned west bound traveling through the parking spots and same direction side swiped a red Toyota Rav 4 causing minimal damage to the left rear quarter panel. There was white paint trade left on the vehicle. There should be correlating red paint trade and minimal damage on the front right quarter panel of the suspect vehicle. The reporter went up to the window of the truck and told the driver he had struck the Toyota. She stated the driver nodded his head as if to say yes and left the parking lot at high speeds. The truck turned north bound on Burkhardt Rd traveling at what the reporter estimated to be in excess of 70 mph. The reporter described the driver as an upper 60`s to low 70`s white male with grayish hair, glasses, and a stocky build. The registered owner of the Rav4 did not have a phone number on file. A case number was left under his windshield wiper.		BREIVOGEL, J. M.

Reported: 09/30/2021. Officers were dispatched to a person with a gun at 1108 E Virginia Street. Upon arrival, officers spoke with the victim. The victim stated that he was sitting in his car parked on the street to the south of the residence (technically a church parking lot) when the offender approached him and told him he needed to leave. The victim stated that the offender held up the stock of a hunting rifle and threatened the victim he was going to beat him with it if the victim does not leave. Officers made entry through the back gate of the residence and observed three people (later identified as the offender, the involved other and an uninvolved female) standing in the back yard talking. Officers gave orders for all three to put their hands up. One at a time officers walked each person back to them and detained them in handcuffs. The involved other and uninvolved party were eventually removed from handcuffs after further investigation revealed that they were not the offender. Officers spoke with the offender. The offender stated that he did approach the victim and started arguing with him. The offender stated that he never had a gun, but he had a 4 foot stick that he keeps in his garage that he uses as a poker for burning wood. The offender did admit to threatening the victim with the stick. Officers spoke with the involved other. He stated that he heard the victim and offender arguing so he came outside to make sure everyone was alright. The involved other stated he never saw the offender with a gun. He only saw him arguing with the victim. Once he saw everything seemed to be alright, he went back to his residence and spoke with the offender when he returned.		SMITH, A. D.
