Criminal Recklessness W/deadly Weapon	Officers were dispatched to 2020 S Green River Rd reference an assault in progress. Prior to our arrival, the suspect had left the scene. Officers arrived and met with the victim and the store clerk. The victim stated he had come to the gas station to buy cigarettes and as he was leaving on his bicycle, a white female, heavier set, approached him and attempted to pull him off his bicycle by grabbing his backpack. The victim stated he has never seen the suspect before, but she told him "You stole my grandma`s bike." I asked the victim if he could give an approximate age or any other description of the suspect, and he stated he could not. The victim stated he has had the same bike for over two years. He stated he has recently been having issues with his neighbor across the street who is constantly calling him "the N word." The victim stated his neighbor had also recently set fire to a burning cross in his driveway/yard. The victim believes the suspect from today`s incident must be related to his neighbor but he has never seen her or her vehicle prior to today. The victim stated he told the suspect he was going to call police. The suspect then said "I have a shotgun in my car." The victim never saw a shotgun, but was in fear of what the suspect may actually do to him. The victim stated the suspect was driving a grey passenger car, partial plate (A16) and as he attempted to get her license plate number (from a safe distance) the suspect threw her vehicle in reverse and hit him while he was on his bicycle. The victim refused AMR and he advised there was no damage to his bicycle. The store clerk, witness 1, stated the suspect was originally at pump 8 and she pulled forward and parked near the front of the store. The witness then saw the suspect cussing at the victim. The witness observed the suspect back up her vehicle into the victim while he was on his bicycle. The witness saw the suspect go towards the Dollar General Store in a silver passenger car, but he was unsure where the suspect actually went. The witness described the suspect as a white female, heavy set. The witness could not give any other description of the suspect. Officers checked the parking lot across the street, and no vehicle with the partial plate, was located. Officers gave the victim a case number card, and advised him if he got any more suspect information, to call the number on the card.
