Of A Crash- Injury Crash	On 11/26/2021 at approximately 0851 hours, I, Officer R. Smith was dispatched to the intersection of John St. and S. Garvin St. in reference to a hit and run with injury. Upon arrival I spoke with the victim. The victim stated that she was traveling east bound on John St. The victim stated that she was in the middle of the intersection where the above roadways intersected. The victim stated that her vehicle and the suspect vehicle collided. The victim stated that she exited her vehicle and spoke with a younger white female subject that was in the suspect vehicle and asked the victim if she was alright. The victim stated that she asked the female subject if she had a cell phone and the female subject replied that she did not have a phone. The victim stated that she then walked back to her vehicle to retrieve her cell phone, turned around, and the suspect vehicle had fled from the scene. The victim complained of pain in her abdominal and neck area. The victim was transported by AMR 1180 to the hospital for immediate medical attention. The victim's vehicle suffered heavy front end damage and was towed by Tri-State Towing due to the vehicle being disabled. The witness stated that the suspect vehicle was an older model white Dodge pick-up, driven by a white male subject. No further description for the male driver was provided. The victim stated that she never saw a male subject. The victim was traveling east bound on John St., while the suspect vehicle was traveling north on Garvin St. The suspect vehicle would have likely suffered driver side damage. Neither the victim or witness could confirm the damage suffered by the suspect vehicle. The suspect vehicle fled from the scene prior to law enforcement's arrival. The suspect vehicle has not been located and there is no offender information at this time. Upon the completion of this report, the offender contacted Central Dispatch and advised that she returned to the scene of the accident. The offender stated that when the victim asked her if she had a phone, she advised the victim that she did not have a phone. The offender stated that she believed she heard that victim say that she did not have a phone as well. The offender stated that she had never been in an accident and did not know what to do next. The offender stated that she left to go retrieve her cell phone from her residence, but when she arrived to her home she realized that her cell phone had no charge to it. The offender stated that she charged her cell phone and returned back to the scene of the accident. The offender was cited (8220154873), released, and given the proper documents in regards to the accident.
