LW 2123868 Theft : A : M	Officers were dispatched to 2220 S Weinbach Ave in reference to a general complaint. The caller, Justin, stated a male placed a speaker box by his trash cans and left it there. Justin stated the male then came back, took the contents from the box, and left the box by the trash cans.	On scene, officers located the empty speaker box between two trash cans along a fence in the drive way of 2220 S Weinbach Ave. Justin was able to show officers video footage of a white male wearing a white t-shirt over top a black long sleeve shirt with a black mask on carrying the speaker box over his shoulder. The box had a shipping label for Cititrends and officers were able to make contact with a manger at the business, Holly, who stated a white male had stolen a speaker just like the one at 2220 S Weinbach Ave. Holly described the suspect and he matched the description seen on Justin's video footage. Holly was able to pull up video footage from the business and it was confirmed this was the same male in the same clothing, seen wearing blue shoes in addition to the description above.	HOLDEN, J. L.
	The male entered the business at 1517 hours and appears to turn his head away from the camera. At 1518 hours the male was seen on camera leaving the business with the speaker box over his shoulder, passing all points of sale without purchasing the speaker. Justin's footage showed the suspect enter his property to stash the speaker at 1519 hours. Justin stated the suspect appeared to cover the box with clothing and then walk east toward the neighbors house. Justin stated a couple of minutes later, the suspect returned to where the box was between the two trash cans. Justin said the suspect removed the contents of the box, placed it into a bag and took off, leaving the box between the trash cans.	Holly was given a case number for the theft report, the box was returned to Cititrends, and a report was completed.
