	The father stated around 1500 hours he got into an argument with his daughter and she told him she was going to leave. The father said shortly after that his daughter packed some bags and he watched her walk out the door. The father stated because he is wheel chair bound he did not follow her out the door or try to stop her. The father stated he had attempted to contact his daughter's probation officer and just wanted her to return home. In speaking with the juvenile at the Jeanette address, she said she did get into an argument with her father and told him she was going to leave. However, she also added that when she told her father she was going to leave that he repeatedly told her to go ahead and leave. The juvenile took this as permission to leave and when officers made contact with her, told officers that he just told her that to get her in trouble. The juvenile told officers she is frequently allowed to go to the address on Jeanette and added that she has been allowed to stay there overnight in multiple occasions for different durations of time. The juvenile said her father lets her leave when his girlfriend is home, but when his girlfriend is at work is when she is not allowed to leave. The juvenile also told officers that the living conditions she is provided with her father are not adequate. The juvenile willingly returned home to her father and a report was completed to document the incident as well as the claims made by both involved.
