Reported: 01/09/2022. I was dispatched to Golden Corral, 130 N Cross Pointe Blvd, in reference to a domestic violence report for an incident which occurred earlier today at 1727 E Illinois St. I arrived and spoke with the victim, Gabrielle Riley. Riley told me the following version of events, as I understood them: Riley and her boyfriend of 2 years have lived together at the E Illinois St address since November 23, 2021. Last night, the offender became upset that Riley had gone to see her friends in another town. The offender reportedly has a drinking problem and can get violent when he drinks. The offender reportedly got more and more angry as the day went on today, which culminated in the offender battering Riley. The offender threw a styrofoam box of food at Riley's head and punched her in the hip area. Riley told the offender to leave her alone and to get away from her, but the offender continued trying to "rip [her] off the bed." Riley attempted to hit the offender back to defend herself, but the offender threw her to the ground, put his hands on her neck, and began "choking" her. Riley was having difficulty breathing as the offender was strangling her. The offender then dragged Riley by her hair and sweatshirt hood from the bedroom into the living room by the front door before throwing her to the ground again. Riley then got her things and left the house. I did not observe any visible injuries or redness when I spoke with Riley, but I told Riley to photograph any marks that may appear later when she is out of the frigid temperature. Riley is staying at another residence tonight. She was informed of her options regarding criminal charges, protection orders, and standbys. Riley was given a case number.		HACKWORTH, N.
