Reported: 01/24/2022. I, Officer A.Smith was dispatched to 2225 N Fares Ave (HUCKS Gas Station) for a property damage accident, involving a white vehicle and a sign. Central Dispatch advised that the white vehicle pulled into pump 8, next to a black Mustang. Upon arrival, I spoke with two women that were standing in between a white Tahoe and a black Mustang. I asked them if either of them were driving the white Tahoe that was involved in the accident with the sign. The older female stated she was driving the Tahoe but had no idea she hit a sign. I told her that she could go inside Hucks and view the security footage with me. As we were viewing the footage, the younger female walked in. Officer M.Harrington asked the younger female if she was driving the Tahoe. She said no and that the older female was her mother. Officer Harrington then told her she needed to leave. To this, she stated she would wait in the hallway for her mother. The older female then told her to leave and go home. The younger female walked out to the parking lot. As soon as she left, I observed on the security footage, the white Tahoe collide with the Exit sign and pull into pump 8. I observed the younger female getting out of the drivers side of the Tahoe and the older female getting out of the Mustang. I went to the parking lot to stop younger female before she left. She was already speeding off in the black Mustang.		SMITH, A. D.
