Reported: 01/24/2022. I, Officer A.Smith was dispatched to 2225 N Fares Ave (HUCKS Gas Station) for a property damage accident, involving a white vehicle and a sign. Central Dispatch advised that the white vehicle pulled into pump 8, next to a black Mustang. Upon arrival, I spoke with two women that were standing in between a white Tahoe and a black Mustang. I asked them if either of them were driving the white Tahoe that was involved in the accident with the sign. The older female stated she was driving the Tahoe but had no idea she hit a sign. I told her that she could go inside Hucks and view the security footage with me. As we were viewing the footage, the younger female walked in. Officer M.Harrington asked the younger female if she was driving the Tahoe. She said no and that the older female was her mother. Officer Harrington then told her she needed to leave. To this, she stated she would wait in the hallway for her mother. The older female then told her to leave and go home. The younger female walked out to the parking lot. As soon as she left, I observed on the security footage, the white Tahoe collide with the Exit sign and pull into pump 8. I observed the younger female getting out of the drivers side of the Tahoe and the older female getting out of the Mustang. I went to the parking lot to stop younger female before she left. She was already speeding off in the black Mustang.	SMITH, A. D.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
	Officer was dispatched to 5430 Stonehedge Dr. regarding a battery report that had occurred on Saturday night on Michigan Ct.. Officer arrived and met with the victim, S. Martin, who said she had received a call on Saturday night from a friend, M. Henderson, saying she need to leave her apartment because her boyfriend, identified as the offender, was intoxicated, being violent, and not handling his alcohol. The offender had went through M. Henderson`s phone and found something in 2019 that had sat him off. S. Martin stated she went to 450 Michigan Ct. and met with M. Henderson who was wanting to get some clothes and leave. The offender had taken M. Henderson`s purse and dumped it out in S. Martin`s car looking for the apartment key he wanted to take away from M. Henderson. The offender had went back inside of the apartment. H. Henderson attempted to gain access to the apartment to gather clothing. S. Martin stated M. Henderson and herself were able to push M. Henderson into her apartment. S. Martin said words were exchanged; at which point, the offender came out of a back bedroom with two guns. S. Martin said he did not point them at her, and she did not feel threatened by him having the two guns. The offender put the guns back up, and the incident escalated by the offender placing one of his hands around her, the victim`s, neck while forcing her over the second story patio guard rail. S. Martin said she was not able to yell at him to get off or away, because she could not breathe and her face was turning red according to others. S. Martin said she was able to get away and leave, but her friend, M. Henderson, wanted to stay there. S. Martin said she is still having a hard time swallowing, and she had pictures on her phone of the injuries she took after the incident. Officer noticed redness and finger/ nail marks consistent to someone being forcefully choked around the neck in the pictures. Officer was not able to see any marks on the victim at the present time.
