Case #	Description	Officer
LW 2201282 General Incident	General Incident (C), at 710 N Saint Joseph Ave, Evansville, IN, between 22:50, 01/21/2022 and 23:33, 01/21/2022. Reported: 01/22/2022. No victims listed. Officer was dispatched to 710 N St. Joseph Ave on 1/22/22 in reference to a previous alarm that showed someone inside the store. Officer cleared the store and found no one inside. The back door alarm was going off and the seal on the door was broke. Cameras showed a white male inside the store. The male took a bottle of Coca-Cola from the shelf, but it could not be determined if the male stole the soda or had paid for it earlier in the night. The male exited the store through the back door that alarm was going off. While officer was still on scene, the same male came up and stated that he had been locked inside the store. When asked about the Coke, he stated he had bought it previously. A case number was given to the reporter in case anything else comes up damaged or stolen later.	TABOR, A. Y.
LW 2201283 Residential Entry	Tapp, Tyra Shna (B F, 31) VICTIM of Residential Entry (C), at 1153 Covert Ave, Evansville, IN, between 00:00, 01/22/2022 and 00:35, 01/22/2022. Reported: 01/22/2022. Officers were dispatched to 1153 - B3 Covert Ave in reference to a criminal mischief report. On scene officers spoke to the victim, Tyra Tapp, who stated her "cousin", the offender (Lyle) had kicked her door in. Tapp stated Lyle is not actually her cousin, she just refers to her with that title. Tapp said she is in the process of moving and while packing she located items that belonged to Lyle. Tapp stated she notified Lyle of the items and on today's date Lyle was texting Tapp in reference to getting her belongings back. Tapp said she last messaged Lyle around 0000 hours and at approximately 0030 hours she was awoken by a neighbor who advised her that the door to the apartment was kicked open. Tapp saw the damage to the interior frame of the door, where forced entry had obviously been made, and called 911. Tapp stated she did not notice any items missing, to include the items that belonged to Lyle. Tapp said Lyle had been to the apartment on occasions and stayed the night a time or two, but was not living at the apartment nor had she ever. A witness on scene, who lives in the complex (above Tapp) and refused to provide his name, stated he heard a female knocking and talking outside Tapp's door. The male said he heard a loud bang and got his shoes to exit his apartment to see what the noise was. The male said when he exited his apartment he observed a heavier set black female exiting the building. The male would not provide any further information. The damage was photographed with officers department issued body worn camera. Tapp was given a case number, advised on how to follow up with charges as well as begin the process of obtaining a protective order, and a report was completed.	AKER, B. W.

	Officers were dispatched to Virginia Street and Cullen Avenue in regard to a hit and run with property damage that had occurred. Upon arriving, I met with the involved other (the driver of one of the involved vehicles) and the reporter/witness. The reporter advised that she was driving east-bound on Virginia Street toward the intersection at Cullen Avenue. She advised that she observed the involved other in his vehicle, a blue Toyota RAV4 (KY License plate: 325YJM), stopped at the intersection for the stop sign at Cullen Avenue facing north-bound. The reporter advised as the involved other was stopped, the offender rear-ended the involved other.
	The reporter slowed down to a stop and watched as the involved other pulled over and into a nearby parking lot. According to the reporter, the offender exited his vehicle briefly before stepping back in and driving away east-bound on Virginia Street. The reporter did not obtain any license plate information, but said that the vehicle was a newer model white sedan. The reporter also advised that the offender was a tall, skinny white male; however, she was unable to provide further details. The reporter said she pulled over with the involved other to make sure he was okay and received help.
	The involved other does not speak English very well, but he advised that everything the reporter mentioned was accurate. The vehicle is registered to Toyota, the true victim in this matter. I observed damage to the center rear of the involved other`s vehicle. I did not observe any paint transfer at this time. Outside conditions were dark and clear. I did not observe any security cameras that faced the intersection affixed onto the surrounding businesses. The involved other was provided with a case number and was told to follow up with Toyota and their insurance company.
