Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 2200425 Crisis Intervention-immediate Detention	VICTIM of Crisis Intervention-immediate Detention (C), at 2600 W Illinois St, Evansville, IN, between 05:39, 01/08/2022 and 05:45, 01/08/2022. Reported: 01/08/2022. Officers were dispatched to 2600 W Illinois St in reference to AMR requesting EPD code 3. The consumer was CIT`d.		TABOR, A. Y.
LW 2200426 Criminal Mischief	Bellm, Daniel Jacob (W M, 43) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief (C), at 1823 E Franklin St, Evansville, IN, between 07:15, 01/08/2021 and 07:15, 01/08/2022. Reported: 01/08/2022. Officers were dispatched to a criminal mischief report. The caller stated there is damage on his shed that was not there before.		AFIFI, A. A.
LW 2200427 Broken Door	Broken Door (C), at 426 S Morton Ave, Evansville, IN, between 21:30, 01/07/2022 and 08:00, 01/08/2022. Reported: 01/08/2022. No victims listed. The RP called to report that her rear storm door had been ripped off the hinges and the rear door frame was damaged as well. She stated her husband had latched the storm door last night around 2130 hours after finding it unlatched. This morning after they got up he looked out the kitchen window and saw the storm door laying on the ground. After looking at the door it does not appear as if someone was trying to get in. It looks like the wind caught the storm door and slammed it open. The storm door only had plastic hinges which could easily be broken. The left side of the frame if you`re looking at it was pulled outward from where the door slammed open. The frame was only being held on by two nails on that side. The RP stated the door had been replaced/repared recently after previously being broken. The RP stated they haven`t had any issues with anything else and do not have anyone angry with them. A report was taken in case anything further happens even though at this time it appears to have possibly been weather related.		GREEN, R. E.

Tot.Est.Loss: $320. I was dispatched to The Pony, 4820 Tecumseh Ln, in reference to a bunco report. The business called in stating that a male was using multiple fake $20 bills. I arrived and searched the area for the suspect, who the bouncers had attempted to chase after the suspect fled, but I was unable to locate him. I spoke with the manager, Scott Winterburn, and an employee. Winterburn stated that the suspect had entered the business and exchanged $320 in $20 bills for $1 bills. Winterburn said he and the employee noticed the bills felt fake. Upon further investigation, Winterburn said he saw the $20 bills all had the same serial number in addition to missing other key security features. Winterburn said the suspect remained out on the floor spending the legitimate $1s he had received on the dancers as the business attempted to keep him there until police arrived. The employee said the suspect got spooked and then fled prior to our arrival. Bouncers attempted to chase the suspect, but they were unsuccessful. I took the counterfeit bills and submitted them to the Financial Crimes Unit. Winterburn was given a case number.		HACKWORTH, N.

LW 2200465	On 01/08/22 Officers were dispatched to a deceased subject. Dispatch advised that the reporter, who is the brother of the deceased, had come to check on him and found him deceased. The address he was found appeared to be abandoned with no power. The reporter believes his brother was squatting here. Fire and AMR were on scene when officers arrived and confirmed the subject was deceased I encountered the reporter in the backyard. He told me he received a text message around 2052 that stated there was a family emergency. He tried to text and call the number but they never responded or answered. He then received a call from his cousin. His cousin stated his brother was deceased and the coroner had picked him up. His cousin gave him the address listed. The original text message had come from his cousin's wife. The reporter came to the address and discovered the back door was unlocked. He made entry and located the victim in a bedroom and it was obvious he was deceased. I then went into the residence. At that time, Crime Scene, detective, and coroner were on scene and inside. I observed the victim laying on a bed in one of the bedrooms. A capped syringe was located near the body of the deceased. There was also a glass pipe with burnt residue on a nearby table. I collected the syringe and glass pipe. The glass pipe was entered into evidence. I documented the syringe with my body cam and it was disposed of in a sharps container at the West Sector Office.	Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possess Paraphernalia (C), at 2021 Old Business 41, Evansville, IN, between 23:30, 01/08/2022 and 00:15, 01/09/2022. Reported: 01/09/2022.	STEWART, A. W.
Controlled Substance- Possess Paraphernalia	On the listed date and time, Officers were dispatched to a general complaint call at the Arrow Head Motel on Old Business 41. Officers arrived and spoke to the reporter, who is staying at the Arrow Head. He stated that multiple times that a neighboring tenet of the motel was threatening him. It should be noted that Officers responded several times the night before for the same issue and could not find evidence of threats made by the neighbor. The manager of the Arrow Head even moved the reporter approximately 20 rooms down to appease the situation. The reporter was instructed to stop calling 911 unless he had an emergency and Officers left. The reporter called again shortly after for the same issue. Officers arrived and placed the reporter under arrest. During a search of his person, a clear pipe with burnt residue inside was found in his left front jacket pocket. The male was transported to the Vanderburgh County Jail and booked in on Possession of Paraphernalia and for Knowing or intentional placement of 911 calls for prohibited purposes.
