

NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Championship Tickets Now Available

February 2, 2022

For Immediate Release

Contact: Eric Marvin

Evansville, IN— NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Championship tickets are now on sale through NCAA.com/tickets and the Ford Center Box Office. The 2022 post-season tournament is returning to Evansville, Indiana, for the 27th time. The event will be co-hosted by the Evansville Sports Corporation and the University of Southern Indiana.

The Elite Eight will be held March 22-26 at Ford Center in downtown Evansville. There will be two sessions of quarterfinals games on Tuesday, March 22, with games at 12:00, 2:30, 6:00 & 8:30 PM (CST). The semifinals will be held on Thursday, March 24 with tip times still to be determined. On Friday night, the NABC Reese's Division II College All-Star Game returns this year and will be played at 6 PM (CST). Tickets to the All-Star Game are $10 for adults and $5 for students, or complimentary with proof of purchase of any ticket to the Division II Championship. The national championship game will be played on Saturday, March 26 at 2 PM (CST) and will air live on CBS.

In 2021, Northwest Missouri State defeated West Texas A&M to earn the title of National Champion for a second consecutive time. The Bearcats have won three of the last five titles.

In recent NABC rankings, Lubbock Christian from Lubbock, Texas is the top ranked Division II men's basketball team with a perfect record. Landing number two in the rankings is Nova Southeastern, another undefeated team. Cal State San Bernardino, Northwest Missouri State, and West Liberty round out the current top 5.

Tickets can be purchased online at ncaa.com/tickets or in-person at the Ford Center Ticket Office. Group tickets must be purchased through the Ford Center Ticket Office. For any questions related to tickets, please contact the Ford Center Ticket Office at (812) 422-1515.

2022 Ticket Prices:

All Session Adult: $50

All Session Student: $25

Single Session Adult: $20

Single Session Student: $10

Under 2 Years: Free

For additional information on this event, please contact Eric Marvin at (812) 375-4701 or emarvin@evansvillesports.org.