		Society VICTIM of Public Administration- Resisting Law Enforcement (C), at 1817 Old Business 41, Evansville, IN, between 23:33, 02/13/2022 and 23:40, 02/13/2022. Reported: 02/14/2022.  On 02/13/2022 at approximately 2338 hundred hours, Officers were dispatched to 1817 Old Business 41 (The Esquire Inn) for a report of domestic violence in progress. My partner and I arrived at the Esquire Inn at approximately 2340 hundred hours and were flagged down by a resident who stated there was screaming coming from the second floor. I could hear audible screaming and I observed two residents standing outside the open door of room 223. I entered room 223 and encountered a disheveled room with obvious signs of a struggle. The room was occupied by a distraught female as well as an equally distraught male. I ushered the female out of the room to my partner and then attempted to detain the male in handcuffs to further the investigation. The male resisted arrest after numerous commands to put his hands behind his back. I called for my partner to assist me in handcuffing the male. The male continued to struggle against us attempting to pry his arms out of our grip with all of his strength. My partner warned the male that he would deploy his Conducted Electrical Weapon (CEW) if he did not comply. The male continued to resist. My partner deployed his CEW as a drive stun to achieve pain compliance for a period not lasting longer than five seconds. The male lessened his struggling and my partner and I were able to secure him in handcuffs. During the struggle, the female fled the scene.

Battery- Domestic	On 02/13/2022 at approximately 2338 hundred hours, Officers were dispatched to 1817 Old Business 41 (The Esquire Inn) for a report of domestic violence in progress. My partner and I arrived at the Esquire Inn at approximately 2340 hundred hours and were flagged down by a resident who stated there was screaming coming from the second floor. I could hear audible screaming and I observed two residents standing outside the open door of room 223. I entered room 223 and encountered a disheveled room with obvious signs of a struggle. The room was occupied by a distraught female as well as an equally distraught male. I ushered the female out of the room to my partner and then attempted to detain the male in handcuffs to further the investigation. The male resisted arrest after numerous commands to put his hands behind his back, ultimately resulting in a Conducted Electrical Weapon deployment not lasting longer than 5 seconds. During the struggle, I called for my partner to assist me in handcuffing the male. My partner was in the process of handcuffing the female when I called for his assistance. The female promptly fled the scene on foot. The male was secured in handcuffs and all use of force ceased. I observed what appeared to be the development of a bruise on the male's right eye as well as several minor lacerations on either side of his neck that were not a result of Officer's use of force. I interviewed a witness who had observed the male and female prior to my arrival, as well as during our altercation. The witness stated the female had headbutted the male and was screaming at him. The male would not provide his statement as to how he developed his visible injuries. The male stated he had been living with the female for 2-3 days. My partner and I photographed the male's injuries and tagged them with the associated case number. The female was identified after she fled the scene. I called for a Sergeant for the use of force. An EPD Sergeant arrived and interviewed the male as well as a witness to the altercation.
