Reported: 02/17/2022. Officers were dispatched to a medical emergency. The reporter stated the male is in room 111 with an unknown medical problem. The reporter stated he just started crying out and then began jerking/flailing about. The male is said to have a pituitary condition that has caused similar symptoms in the past. Officers arrived on scene. The wife of the male exited the room and met officers in the parking lot. Officers observed blood on the wife`s wrist and she was visibly upset. The wife stated the cut on her arm was from attempting to hold the male down. Officers asked her what was going on and she stated she came back to the hotel at the same time her husband was walking into the room. The wife stated he left a friend`s room just a few doors down (unsure what room). The wife stated fifteen minutes later the male began to have erratic behavior. The wife stated he had a prior addiction to "meth" twenty eight years ago and was recently released from Brentwood Springs (rehabilitation facility) for possible drugs issues. Officers walked into the threshold of the room and observed the male pound his fists and head off the bed. The male would scream and then stand up before bouncing his head off the bed again. Officers entered the room fully and went on the opposite side of the bed in attempts to talk to the male. LW 2202932	Traffic-op W/o Ins / Prior [cm]	speak to the male with the bed in between the officer and the male, for officer safety purposes (creating space from the male), officers observed a glass pipe with burnt residue lying in the trash can. Officers attempted to ask the male questions, but he was not able to answer any of them. Officers placed the male in handcuffs. The male was sweating so bad, that his shirt and zip-up hoody where drenched. The wife stated she knew nothing of the glass pipe. Officers also found two prescription bottles, when checking what medications the male was on for AMR. The prescription bottles, with the wife's name on it, had a grey crushed sustained (unknown at this time what the substance is) and a clear baggy similar to what narcotics are packaged in. Officers collected the pill bottles and later placed them into evidence as found property. The male was given a citation for the pipe and taken to Deaconess Mid-Town for medical treatment. He was admitted into the hospital for further treatment. Citation number 82E005610.	HELFBERT, N. A.
