Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
	Yesterday evening at approximately 2000 hours a Black male wearing a medical face covering entered the store. A possible name for this male is Jaymie. This male purchased $418.36 on his first purchase into the store at 2001 hours. He did not have a credit card but had the picture of the card on his phone. The store employee, Chelsea Carson, is new and wasn't for sure she could do that so she called another employee who said it was ok. Ms. Carson manually entered the credit card number into the machine and the transaction was processed and the male left the store. At 2011 hours the male is back in the store and this time purchases $691.82 of alcohol and then leaves the store. Ms. Carson stated the man had a Kentucky ID. This morning the owner of the credit card called and stated he had already called his bank and disputed the transaction. This will result in the Liquor Locker being out the money. There is a good video system that may be of some benefit. I attempted to contact the owner of the card but was unable to make contact. I included all the information I had into the name file. The man from Ohio did return my call. See Officer narrative for a few more details.

	Lewis reported she was visiting her grandmother who was ill. She relayed the offender, her aunt, resides with her grandmother and was in the house this evening. Lewis stated she heard her aunt leaving the house and that she left the residence in an older, gold Kia minivan. Lewis reported she left her grandmother's house approximately 5-6 minutes after the offender. Lewis stated she began to drive away from her grandmother's residence her front, passenger side door of her vehicle came open. It was at this time she noticed her purse was missing from the front, passenger side floor. Lewis reported her vehicle was unlocked while she was inside of her grandmother's residence, but believes the offender is responsible for the theft of her purse due to, per Lewis, the offender stealing items from her in the past. Lewis did not have a direction of travel for the offender. Lewis was provided with a case number. She stated she had alerted her debit/credit card companies about the card thefts. She was informed on how to follow-up with charges through the Prosecutor's office. She was also asked to call back if she found that any of her stolen cards had been fraudulently used.
