Reported: 02/23/2022. The victim stated that she used to be in a relationship with the two suspects. She stated that the suspects are brothers. The victim stated that awhile back the suspects broke a window on her apartment after she was no longer with their brother. The victim reported it to police to keep from getting in trouble with management at the apartment complex. The two suspects then have been out to get the victim. The victim stated that she walked out of Grocery Outlet at 1200 N Fulton where she was confronted by the two suspects. Victim said that suspect 2 grabbed her clothes and threatened to whoop her. She said that Suspect 1 pulled a black/silver handgun and pointed it at her. She then called 911. At that time she only named suspect 1 as wearing a red jacket that fled west. Officers checked the area but never located him. We also could not locate the victim. A short time later Officer Shahine located the victim driving down Fulton so he stopped her. The victim then stated that suspect 2 was also there and grabbed her clothing and threatened to whoop her. Officers located suspect 2 at Shanklin/Fifth Ave. Suspect 2 only stated that he had not seen suspect 1 in about a day. The victim was given a case number, advised on how to follow up with charges and how to get a protective order.		SAMMET, N.
