Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
Vehicle While Intoxicated	I, Ofc. A. Beaver, was dispatched to a motor vehicle accident with property damage in the area of Washington Ave and Boeke Rd. at 18:57. Upon my arrival, I located the accident in the intersection of Washington and Boeke. The offender`s, Eli Gomez, vehicle had rear ended a second vehicle. There had been children in the vehicle which he hit. I saw that no one was sitting in the offender`s vehicle. I asked where the driver was. The group of people pointed to the south west corner of the intersection. I looked and saw Eli hiding behind a tree on the south west corner of the intersection. I began to walk towards him. He looked at me and then proceeded to turn south and walk away from the scene of the accident before exchanging all appropriate information. I called out "Stop Police" four times. Gomez continued to walk away from me until I caught up to him. Once I caught up to him I placed him in hand cuffs. It became apparent that Eli spoke Spanish and knew little English. I played a video on YouTube advising Gomez of the Miranda Warning in Spanish I asked " Tú comprende `Stop police`". He stated he did. I then used Google translate to ask if he recognized me as a police officer when he saw me. He stated he did. I could smell the odor of an alcoholic beverage on the breath of Gomez. Ofc. Famer asked Gomez to blow into a PBT. Gomez agreed. He achieved a reading of .158 BrAC. Due to the rain and language barrier I decided not to conduct SFSTs. I had Gomez read Implied Consent in Spanish. He agreed to submit to the chemical test. Gomez had a Mexican Passport in his position. He was unable to present any valid driver`s license. He stated he did not have a driver`s license. I was unable to find any proof that Gomez had ever obtained a valid driver`s license. Gomez was transported to Deaconess Midtown to receive jail medical clearance paperwork. He was then transported to Vanderburgh County Correction Center. Upon our arrival, Intox Operator Rosenthal again gave Gomez the Implied consent in Spanish. Gomez again agreed to the chemical test. Ofc. Rosenthal conducted the chemical test. Gomez achieved a reading of 0.117 g/210L at 21:53. Gomez was booked under the above charges.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 2203447	Winn noticed bulges in the offender`s pockets. Officer Winn believed that the offender could be armed and dangerous given the fact surrounding the incident, so he patted him down. As Officer Winn was patting down the offender down for weapons, he felt a bulge in the offender`s left-front pants pocket. Based on Officer Winn`s training and experience, it was immediately apparent to him that the bulge was illegal narcotics. Officer Winn seized the narcotics, a plant-like substance. Based on Officer Winn`s training and experience, he believed the substance was marijuana. Officer Winn then searched the offender incident to arrest and located metal glass pipe containing burnt residue (paraphernalia) in the offender`s right-front pants pocket. The pipe was seized for evidentiary purposes. Officer Winn handed the marijuana and paraphernalia to Officer Sumrall. The offender was provided with a citation for the offense. At EPD Headquarters, Officer Sumrall field tested the plant-like substance. The plant-like substance tested positive for THC. Officer Sumrall weighed the marijuana using a digital scale. The marijuana weighed a total of 15.0 grams. The marijuana and paraphernalia were properly bagged, labeled, sealed, and placed into evidence at the EPD Headquarters.		COYLE, W. J.
Pot Hole Damage	Pot Hole Damage (C), at 222 S Red Bank Rd, Evansville, IN, between 19:28, 02/24/2022 and 19:30, 02/24/2022. Reported: 02/24/2022. No victims listed. Officers were requested to the parkinglot of Noble Roman`s Pizza by a citizen who damaged her tire from hitting a pot hole. The driver was driving west on the access road in front of Noble Roman`s when she hit a pot hole, which caused her driver`side front tire to pop. Officers contacted city garage and it was determined that the parking lot was privately owned. Officers took a general incident report to document the incident and provided the reporting party with a case number.
