Reported: 03/16/2022. Officers were dispatched to a harassment report at the listed address. The victim called into 911 and had a BOL put out for the offender driving by his residence, harassing his kids, and throwing trash into his yard from his car. The victim was transferred to EPD Records to make a report. The victim, during the process of filing a report with records, was told by a neighbor that the offender pulled a knife out and made threats toward the victim. Officers were dispatched due to the additional information. The victim stated the offender is his wife`s sister`s exboyfriend. He knows the offender, but does not like him coming around the house. The offender drove by today and the victim told him to leave. The offender went down the street, exited the vehicle, and stood at the back of the vehicle yelling at the victim. The victim was on the phone with Vanderburgh Dispatch (BOL) and giving them the license plate information. The offender got back in the vehicle and it left northbound on Lemcke Ave. He didn`t realize anything had happened until approached by a neighbor. There was a group of juvenile males playing basketball in the middle of the street. Only one of the juveniles was able to tell be what he saw. The juvenile male lives on 2500 block of W Illinois St. He stated the offender pulled up in a black passenger car. He exited the vehicle and was yelling at the victim. He pulled out a knife, flipped it open, and said "Do you wanna go?" A case number was already pulled for the report records was going to do. I used that case number and gave it to the victim. I advised him that he needed to attempt to file for a protective order. I explained the process on how to get one and how it works. I told him he could use the case number I was giving him to assist in applying for it.		FRAZIER, R. T.

It should be noted that Officers walked in and around the garage looking for individuals not 5 minutes before hand and there was no smoke coming from the garage. The Fire investigator arrived went over the scene and was given a case number. Garretson, Stephen Allen (W M, 24) VICTIM of Theft- From Motor Vehicle -nibrs (C), at 3901 Terra Trace Ct, Evansville, IN, between 23:00, 03/15/2022 and 07:00, 03/16/2022. Reported: 03/16/2022. Tot.Est.Loss: $170. Officers arrived at the listed address and spoke with Stephen Garretson who stated his truck was broken into. Garretson stated that he believed his truck was broken into on the night of 03/15/2022. He stated that he found the evidence of his truck being broken into and missing items the afternoon of 03/16/2022. Garretson stated that the suspect attempted to break the lock on the drivers side door. Officers observed the lock on the door and it was clearly pushed in. The drivers side door was not able to open due to the damage on the lock. Garretson stated that the back window was also broken and believed that the suspect entered through the back window of the truck. Garretson stated that this was the only way he was able to get back into his truck because the passenger side door was unable to open due to an unrelated motor vehicle accident. The ignition to the vehicle was also damaged during the break-in. Garretson stated that the suspect stole a few tools out of his truck. A Ryobi drill was stolen along with a screw driver and pliers. Garretson stated that he was mostly concerned about the Ryobi drill because it was the most valuable item that the suspect reportedly stole from his truck. Officers made a report and provided Garretson with a case number.		MOGENSEN, C. Tot.Est.Loss: $1. Officers were dispatched to the listed address for a residential burglary report. The victim stated she was upstairs, in her bedroom, asleep in bed. 3 individuals (2 white males, 1 black female) were in her bedroom when she awoke (listed timeframe). The offenders stated they entered through the backdoor of the residence. They stated they worked for a church and were going to help her clean up her home. The victim believed them until she noticed her house had been gone through and she had some items missing. The offenders had left the area prior to her realization/phone call. The victim could not give me a list of items that were taken because she was told not to touch anything. I gave her a case number and advised her to go through her home and make a list of all the items that had been taken (with prices and serial numbers if possible). I showed her the number to call on her case number card.		FRAZIER, R. T.

	conduct. Central Dispatch advised that there was an argument over a parking violation and that the offender had pulled a gun out and was making threats. Officers arrived on scene, and spoke to the victim Mikiyah McBaine. McBaine stated that she was outside with other family members, when the neighbor had arrived home and was attempting to pull into her driveway, which is located just east of McBaine`s residence. McBaine stated that the neighbor became upset stating that a vehicle was blocking her driveway. McBaine stated that the vehicle was not blocking her driveway, and they got into an argument. McBaine stated that the neighbor eventually pulled into her driveway and that they continued to argue as her neighbor went into her residence. McBaine stated that she then observed the offender exit the residence with a pistol in his hand. McBaine stated that she then observed the offender pointing a firearm in her direction. McBaine stated that the offender did not say anything, but she was placed in fear and wished to pursue charges. I then made contact with the offender and neighbor at their address just to the east. The neighbor stated that this has been an ongoing issue between neighbors in regards to parking on the street and blocking her driveway. The neighbor stated that she came home and her driveway was blocked. The neighbor stated that she honked her horn in order to notify the neighbors to move the vehicle, when McBaine and other family members approached her car and began to yell at her. The neighbor stated that they continued to argue and harass her until she was able to enter her driveway. The offender stated that he was told by his wife that she was being harassed by the neighbors and that he exited the house with his firearm down by his side. The offender stated that he never pointed his firearm at anyone and that he had his gun for personal protection. McBaine was provided with a case number for reference and was advised how to follow up with the prosecutor`s office.
