LW 2205471 Domestic Battery-w/prior Unrelated Conviction(s)	Sisk, Katie Anne (W F, 30) VICTIM of Domestic Battery-w/prior Unrelated Conviction(s) (C), at 5299 Eden Dr, Evansville, IN, between 08:00, 03/24/2022 and 10:30, 03/27/2022. Reported: 03/27/2022. On 03/27/2022, I was dispatched to a domestic violence in progress at 5299 Eden Drive. Dispatch notified me that the offender had left the scene in a silver Pontiac. Before I arrived on scene, another unit spotted the vehicle driving on N Green River Road. The officers that spotted the vehicle attempted to make a traffic stop on the silver Pontiac. Over the radio I heard an officer say that the vehicle was fleeing and they did not pursue the vehicle due to EPD`s pursuit policy. Soon after I heard that on the radio, I arrived on scene. I made my way to the apartment building and made contact with the victim, Katie Sisk, and the person that reported the incident, Kenzie Mills. When I met with Sisk, I noticed obvious injury to her face. Her left eye was bruised and appeared to be slightly swollen. Sisk`s chin was red and had impression marks. She also had a few scratch marks on her face. I then asked Sisk what had happened and she stated that around 10:00 her ex-boyfriend made entry into her apartment with a key that she stated he was not supposed to have. She stated that she was asleep in her bedroom and her ex-boyfriend took some prescription pills out of her purse and woke her up. Sisk stated that they began arguing and eventually her ex-boyfriend became physical with her when she tried to call 911. Sisk stated that when she attempted to call 911, her ex-boyfriend took her phone and began hitting the left side of her face with it. She stated that her ex-boyfriend also grabbed her face and squeezed it which left the scratch marks on her face. Sisk stated that while he was grabbing her by the face, he began smothering her by placing his hand over her mouth. Sisk said that she could not breath. Sisk also stated that her ex-boyfriend also began biting her chin and would not get off of her. She stated that her ex-boyfriend eventually got off of her and she was able to leave the premises. Sisk stated that she went to her friend`s house (Kenzie Mills) from there to get away from her ex-boyfriend. On her way over she stated that she took the key that he had to her apartment. Sisk stated that when she returned to her apartment with Mills and her ex-boyfriend was not there. Sisk stated that her ex-boyfriend showed up again and he attempted entering the premises again but did not have the key to enter. This is when Mills called 911 at 15:36 to report the domestic violence. Sisk stated that her ex-boyfriend took her silver Pontiac and left the scene. Sisk said her ex-boyfriend also arrived in that vehicle and he has been driving it without permission. Sisk stated that she previously had a protective order on her ex-boyfriend but she stated that on 03/24/2022 he threatened her verbally. She claimed that her ex-boyfriend stated that if she did not get the protective order removed, he would kill her, her family and her friends. Sisk stated that the offender drove her downtown to get the protection order removed because she was scared that her ex-boyfriend would kill her. CSU arrived to photograph Sisk`s injuries. Sisk was informed of options available to victims of domestic violence and then given a case number.		MOGENSEN, C. C.

Sisk stated that her ex-boyfriend was borrowing her car every so often and when they ended their relationship, she stated she was too afraid to report her ex-boyfriend because he had threatened to murder her. Sisk previously had a protection order against the ex-boyfriend. The vehicle is registered to Sisk and she has not given the ex-boyfriend permission to keep driving the vehicle. When the domestic violence occurred Sisk's friend reported her ex-boyfriend for the domestic violence. During the investigation of the domestic violence, Sisk stated that her ex-boyfriend had stolen her car. Meredith, Heather Dawn (W F, 34) VICTIM of Communication- Intimidation (C), at 2556 N Kentucky Ave, Evansville, IN, between 14:40, 03/27/2022 and 14:47, 03/27/2022. Reported: 03/27/2022. On 03/27/2022, officers took an intimidation report. VI stated OF told her she was going to kill her, she wished someone would kill her and she wished someone would shoot her. She then stated she was going to go get a knife after VI did not responded to the original statements. VI did not wish to press charges.		FARMER, A. C.
LW 2205474 Burglary	Allen, Rachel Michelle (W F, 35) VICTIM of Burglary (C), at 128 Euclid Dr, Evansville, IN, between 14:00, 03/18/2022 and 15:35, 03/27/2022. Reported: 03/27/2022. Tot.Est.Loss: $500. Officers were dispatched to 128 Euclid Dr. in reference to a burglary. When officers arrived on scene the victim was waiting by the garage. The victim stated that she had just arrived at her home after being out of town since March 18th and noticed her back gate was open. The victim stated she looked around the property and noticed her window located to the home's eastern exterior wall was shattered. The victim stated she turned toward the garage and noticed the door was open and the lock was missing. The victim stated she went into the garage and noticed that her Husqvarna lawn mower and her Echo weedeater was missing. No other items were disturbed inside the garage. The victim stated she went to the back door of her home and observed what appeared to be strike marks on the deadbolt and multiple strikes to the left of the deadbolt. CSU was notified to take pictures and the victim was provided with a case number.		SUMRALL, B. N.
LW 2205472 Public Administration-Resisting Law Enforcement	Society VICTIM of Public Administration- Resisting Law Enforcement (C), at 100 N Green River Rd, Evansville, IN, between 15:40, 03/27/2022 and 15:41, 03/27/2022. Reported: 03/27/2022. Officer Hastings and I, Officer Cooley, were in route to a custody dispute run when we heard a domestic dispute run come out on Eden Dr. Dispatch advised the offender left in a silver colored Pontiac Grand Prix and the victim in the domestic provided the name of the offender and stated the vehicle belonged to her. Officer Hastings observed a vehicle matching the description of the vehicle from the reported Domestic Violence incident. We turned around in our fully marked Evansville Police Department vehicle to confirm if the vehicle was the described vehicle. Officer Hastings ran the license plate to the vehicle through the BMV and confirmed that the registration came back to the Domestic Violence victim. I activated my emergency light and siren and attempted to pull the vehicle over to investigate further. As the vehicle continued south on Green River, the vehicle failed to yield and then proceeded to turn west onto Lloyd Expressway. As the vehicle began to merge onto Lloyd Expressway, the vehicle speed around a vehicle in front of it and merged left across several lanes at a high rate of speed. The vehicle continued west on the Lloyd Expressway at a high rate of speed. Officer Hastings advised the vehicle was evading us and stated we were not going to		COOLEY, M.
