Stat Sheet	Officers were dispatched to this address to speak with the RP and VI. The RP stated that her mother's mental health has been deteriorating in recent months. The RP states that her mother has called her numerous times to report people breaking into her apartment and other crimes. On today's date, the RP's mother was repeatedly knocking on neighbors doors. The RP states that her mother asked her to drive to the bank multiple times today. She states that her mother tried to withdraw money but the account was empty. EPD has been dispatched eight times in the last three weeks to the address. The VI has made statements that people are stealing items from her apartment, breaking in, or trying to burn her apartment down. These runs have been unfounded. When questioned further about the alleged crimes, the VI was unable to give coherent information about what had happened. On today's date, a CIT officer made contact with the VI. She was found to be cognizant of the time, day, and where she was but she continued to make paranoid statements about people breaking into her apartment. The VI also stated that she was going to "go to the mall" even though the mall had closed 30 minutes prior. The VI told officers that her daughter was lying about her bank account being empty and that it actually had $20,000. The caller believes that her mother may be suffering from early dementia. She states that the apartment manager reportedly contacted APS about her mental health already. RP was advised to seek POA and her mother's healthcare provider.
