The reporter advised that after they left, they noticed merchandise missing from some of the displays and were unable to account for them. The reporter advised that she watched the video of the incident and observed offender 1 take two pairs of sunglasses (one valued at $170.00 and the other valued at $158.00), conceal them in a fanny pack that she was wearing on her hip, and walk out of the store passed all points of purchase without rendering proper payment. Offender 2 picked up a pair of $80.00 frames, removed the price tag and both lenses, and then walked up to the counter. Offender 2 told the staff that she had paid for the glasses and needed new lenses in them. Offender 2 never left with anything; however, this is attempted theft by deception. The reporter advised that both have been clients since the early 2000s and provided me their information (name, address, and phone number). I traveled to 1916 Garvin Street, where both were allegedly living. I made contact with offender 1, who advised that she did take the glasses but thought she could due to her insurance. I made it very clear that taking glasses from a store without paying for them is not how insurance works. She advised she messed up and would not do that again. I retrieved both pairs of sunglasses from her and returned to Ridgway Eyecare. Upon arriving, I provided the stolen glasses back to the reporter. The reporter did not wish to press charges and only wanted them barred/banned from the property for life. The reporter was provided a case number for her reference.		EAGLESON, R. C.

Tot.Est.Loss: $220. I was dispatched to 3810 Bergdolt Rd in reference to a report of a theft that occurred earlier at Rural King, 2300 E Morgan Ave. I called and spoke with the victim, Shannon Wild, on the phone. Wild said between 1315 and 1415 hours she had checked out and dropped her cart off at the cart corral area in the parking lot. Wild said she drove away and after a block or so realized she had forgotten her purse in the cart. Wild said she returned and was unable to find the purse. Wild checked with store employees, but no one reported locating the purse. Wild said she had taken her cell phone, driver`s license, and keys out of the purse, but her (and her children`s) Social Security cards, a Discover card, a JC Penney credit card, a Diamond Valley FCU debit card, and approximately $200 cash were inside the purse. The purse was described as a black mesh purse with white and pink stripes on the wallet part. I went to Rural King to speak with the manager. The manager said no one had turned in a purse to them. The manager also said they are going to be on the lookout to check the bottoms of the trash cans when they empty the trash tonight in case all/part of the stolen items were discarded. I checked a couple nearby trash cans and dumpsters but I was unable to locate anything. I was unable to develop any leads with the store`s security cameras.		HACKWORTH, N.
