Communication- Intimidation
	I, Officer J. Holden, was dispatched to 2501 Pollack Ave reference a disorderly conduct. I arrived on scene and met with the victim. The victim advised he is the assistant property manager for the apartment complex. The victim stated the suspect is upset because he believes people have been breaking into his apartment. The victim stated the suspect believes he is the one who goes into his apartment. The victim stated he has no reason to go into the suspect`s apartment and he gets very angry about it all.
	During an argument today the suspect refused to calm down and told the victim "I'll shoot you." The suspect left after making the threat but then returned to the apartment complex. Dispatch advised they could hear a lot of yelling on the 911 call. The suspect left again but returned once more while officers were on scene.
	I read the suspect his Miranda Rights, which he stated he understood. The suspect denied ever saying he was going to shoot the victim. The suspect stated during the argument the victim went and got a gun and put it on his hip. The suspect stated the victim never got it out or pointed it at him, but he got it out and he felt threatened.
	I contacted Sgt. Hunt in the Detective office reference the incident. Due to not having any witnesses to the threat, an arrest was not made, but a report was completed.
	The victim was advised how to file for eviction and for a protective order. The victim was given a case number.
	The suspect and the actual property manager came to an agreement and everyone was calm when officers left the scene.
