Central Dispatch advised that a male had possibly been stabbed at this location. Upon arriving, I located numerous people in the front yard of the home. I also noticed AMR had arrived and were treating a white male wearing a red shirt. He walked up to me where I had him place his hands behind his back, handcuffed him, and then patted him down for weapons. I did not locate any weapons on his person. He understood his rights and agreed to speak with me. The victim advised that he and his girlfriend (offender) have two children in common together and have been together since 2018. The offender remained outside and began to rummage through the vehicle they were riding in, pulling out the car seats and throwing them on the ground. The victim came back outside and went up to the vehicle where the offender was. As the victim was walking up to the offender, the offender got out of the vehicle and stabbed the victim on the right wrist, causing a small laceration (AMR advised the wound was superficial - the victim denied going to the hospital. The bleeding stopped on scene). The victim stated that he thought the offender stabbed him with a small pocket knife with a cork screw on it; however, we later learned that it was a pair of nail clippers.		EAGLESON, R. C.
