Reported: 07/24/2022. Officers were in full uniform on regular patrol driving a marked police vehicle. Officers were driving north on N St. Joseph Ave, in the far right lane, when they observed a truck activate their left turn signal (in the left north bound lane), to turn west on Bement. The truck failed to turn and began to unsafely move into the officer`s lane of travel, as they both continued north. The officer had to quickly apply their breaks, before their marked police vehicle was side swiped on the driver`s side. The truck then continued to drive north bound on St. Joseph Ave, straddling the white line for north bound traffic. The truck, after traveling more than two hundred feet, finally moved into the right lane, of north bound traffic. Officers activated their emergency lights and conducted a traffic stop. The truck pulled into Bussler`s on Saint Joseph. Officers approached the driver side of the truck and had the driver turn off the vehicle, he did so. Officers could smell the odor of alcohol coming off the driver as he spoke. The driver had slow slurred speech, with glossy eyes. The driver appeared as if he was struggling to stay awake as he was speaking with officers. Officers requested the driver`s identification. Officers observed an open beer bottle in the middle consol. Officers took the driver`s identification and made sure he had valid insurance, before walking away from the driver`s door. Other officers arrived on scene. As one officer was running the driver`s information through Indiana BMV, the other officer at the vehicle observed the driver falling asleep while sitting in the vehicle. Officers confirmed the driver was a valid operator and received a return that the plates were expired on the truck. Officers walked back to the truck and had the driver step out. Once out of the vehicle, the driver struggled to follow officers` instructions. Officers patted the driver down for weapons and had him step away from the truck. Officers asked the driver if he would take Field Sobriety Tests (SFSTs), the driver refused. The driver stated he knew he was intoxicated and did not want to waste officers` time. Officers then asked the driver if he would take a portable breathalyzer (PBT), he stated he would. The driver blew a .222 on the PBT. Officers placed the driver in handcuffs, and read him Miranda. The driver stated he understood. During questioning, the driver stated he came from Lamasco Bar on Franklin St. The driver stated he had at least four mixed drinks and stated he drank the equivalent of a twelve pack of beer. The driver previously stated he was heading home to Owensville, IN, which is a significant way away from Bussler`s on St. Joseph Ave. Officers read the driver Implied Consent, and he consented to a certified breathalyzer at VCCC. The driver was searched and placed in the back of		FAHSE, A. G.
