Officers could smell the odor of raw marijuana and observed a green leafy substance in the suspects clear purse. Based on Officers training and experience, they immediatley recognized the substance as marijuana. The passenger and driver, involved other 1 (IO1), were asked to exit the vehicle. Officers read the suspect and IO1 the miranda warning on their BodyWorn camera. Both stated they understood and agreed to speak with Officers. The suspect stated the marijuana was hers. Officers issued the suspect a misdemeanor citation; she was then released from the scene. IO1 was taken to VCCC on unrelated charges. At VCCC, the green leafy substance had a field weight of 6.3 grams and field tested positive for THC. The substance was bagged, labeled, and submitted into evidence. Officers were on routine patrol when they observed a red Toyota Camry (Kentucky Temp. Plate B386896) traveling north on Judson Street. The vehicle then made a right hand turn on Cass Avenue and then another right hand turn on Governor Street. The vehicle then began to travel southbound on Governor Street before making a right hand turn on Ridgeway Avenue before signaling prior to 200 feet. After being behind the vehicle officers observed that the plates were expired since 06/18/2022. Officers then conducted a traffic stop close to the intersection of Ridgeway Avenue and Judson Street. Officers then made contact with the two occupants of the vehicle. 	vehicle, Officers could smell the odor of raw marijuana. While the front seat passenger was retrieving her ID officers observed a clear plastic bag that contained a green leafy substance in her purse. Reference case 22-15764. Officers ran the driver's information which showed that he had an Regular ID card and had never received a license. Officers then conducted a probable cause search on the vehicle and located a rifle on the floorboard in front of the backseat. Officers were able to determine that the driver of the vehicle was a felon. Officers asked the passenger if the firearm belonged to her and she advised that it did not. The driver advised the firearm belonged to the passenger of the vehicle. Officers read both the passenger and driver Pirtle. The passenger consented to giving DNA and the driver denied giving DNA. The driver was transported to VCCC and booked in with the listed charges without incident. The passenger was cited and released from the scene.
