LW 2218352 Simple Assault - Nibrs	Best, Alec Clark (W M, 27) VICTIM of Simple Assault - Nibrs (C), at 4682 Spring Valley Rd, Evansville, IN, on 09/12/2022, 23:45. Reported: 09/13/2022. I was dispatched to the above address for a battery report. I made contact with the victim outside of his apartment. The victim stated that couple days ago the offender and he had an agreement that, if the offender would have deep cleaned the victim`s apartment, the victim would have paid him 100 dollars. The victim stated that later he and the offender had a disagreement, and the offender told him that he wanted to fight him over that. The victim stated that today around 2340, the offender and another white male arrived in an older dark green SUV, and confronted him about their issues. The victim stated that he went inside his apartment because it wasn`t going to be a fair fight, so the offender followed him. The victim stated that he tried to lock his door, but the offender was able to push the door open and made an entry, and punched him with a close fist in a face. The victim stated that later the offender threw an item at the far left side window close to the main door and it shattered the glass, and the offender proceeded to spray mace on the victim`s face. I gave a case number to the victim, explained on how to apply for a PO, and advised hi t call us if he needs us.		AGHASARYAN,

Incident Rpt Misc	Hall called for a battery report. She had no signs of injury and no complaint of pain. She claimed the incident occurred about 24 hours prior to calling 911. When asked why she didn't call, she said she was tired and went to sleep; she was upset I even asked the question. She claimed she was simply going to call the business (Country Mark gas station) and speak with the manager. She had an unpleasant conversation and then decided to call 911.
	She said she accidentally spilled a soft drink onto the floor and the employee was upset. She then said she accidentally spilled the soft drink a second time and the employee told her to leave. At that point, she intentionally poured her drink out, causing an even bigger mess and argument before the employee "physically" forced her to leave. She claimed her phone was damaged in the process but said she dropped it.
	She told this story to the male she lives with. He also said he did not call 911 because she told him she wanted to handle it herself. Hall overheard me asking the male questions, became upset that "we" never help her and complained about my response time. I informed her how busy the city was, which she blew off. She then said she didn't call because she didn't have a phone. Having no injury or complaint of pain, Hall was eager to leave as she thought I was not going to help her. An incident report was generated.
