I then observed the first female, who gave a name of Sarah initially but was later identified as Brittani, grab a baggie and cigarettes off of the table before exiting the room. I then asked Brittani what she had grabbed off the table and she stated cigarettes. I then asked what was in her other hand she then dropped the large baggie of a white rock substance. I then placed her into custody. The other female that exited the room was identified as Amber. The other assisting officers then placed the other subjects in to custody as well. Officers then mirandized all the subjects. I then spoke with Brittani who was still claiming to be Sarah at the time. Brittani stated that she just grabbed the bag out of instinct trying to hide the illegal substance from officers. Brittani denied ownership of the bag or any other narcotics that may be found in the room and stated that she was just visiting Derick. I then spoke with Amber who stated that she had came with Brittani. I then asked Amber who Brittani was and she claimed it was the other female we had just talked to. Amber also denied any ownership of any narcotics or anything else in the room. I then took Amber back outside with the rest of the subjects. I then began to talk with Brittani again and called her by Brittani and she answered. I then asked Brittani why she lied to me and she claimed she might have a warrant and gave her real name Brittani Meredith. Officers ran her and found she had a felony warrant as well. Officer Tevault spoke with Derick who was the renter of the room. Derick consented to a search of the room and several other narcotics were found in the room along with paraphernalia. Derick, Xavier, Brittani was transported to VCCC on several narcotic charges. Amber was cited and released for visiting a common nuisance. | | SHAHINE, S. L. |
