Ronshaga went to the back door and observed the offender standing at the back door. The offender told Ronshaga that he was bringing food for his kids. Ronshaga stated that she then planned on only opening the door and getting the food and was not going to allow the offender inside. Ronshaga stated that as she unlocked the door the offender kicked the door and made entry to the home. Ronshaga advised that he then sat the food down and smacked her in the right side of her face causing a complaint of pain. Ronshaga		MILES, C. A.
