Reported: 11/06/2022. Officer was dispatched to 1734 S Morton Ave in regards to a harassment report. Upon arriving I spoke with the Victim. She advised that the address she is currently at is her mother's. That she had been at her residence when the father of her two children called threatening her over not getting to see his children and that he was on his way over. She immediately loaded her kids up in the car to leave due to being afraid of him coming over and assaulting her. After getting into the car, a large white truck came flying down the street. This is not the vehicle that she is accustomed to him driving and didn't immediately recognize it to be him. He pulled up alongside her as if to block her in but once she realized it was him, she was able to drive off. She was heading to her mother's house. While on her way there the OF kept trying to force her to stop, cutting off traffic and making the Victim in fear for her and her childrens life. She figured someone had to have called in to 911 due to his erratic driving. The Victim advised that she had previously had a Protective Order on him but dropped it, thinking that there wouldn't be anymore problems. During the time the Protective Order was in place she hadn't had any issues with him. She was advised to get a Protective Order and keep it in place indefinitely.		WILSON, M. R.
