Officers began to ask the driver questions, but he starred off into the distance. Officers read the driver Miranda, and the driver did not acknowledge officers. The male was read Miranda multiple times, but never stated he understood his rights. Officers asked the male if he would take Field Sobriety Tests (SFSTs), he did not answer. He was placed in handcuffs and walked to the transport wagon. Once in the wagon, officers read the driver Implied Consent. The driver stated he would take the chemical test and do SFSTs at VCCC. At VCCC the driver was given Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus. During the tests, the driver began closing his eyes and following the stimulus with his head, as he swayed back and forth. Officers were unable to conduct the test because he continued to close his eyes. Officers then gave the walk-and-turn test. The male was unable to maintain the starting position and then did not count his steps out loud. The male stopped the test, stepped off the line, tripped and almost fell into the wall. Officers stopped the SFSTs due to the safety of the driver. Officers gave the certified breathalyzer to the driver (he was read Implied Consent a second time). The driver was unable to provide a sample. The driver was given multiple times to complete the test and eventually the test was stopped because the driver would no longer follow directions. The driver's vehicle was towed and an EPD admin fee was added. The plates on the vehicle were also found to be expired. The driver was booked in on multiple charges.		HALLMARK, B. G.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
Vehicle While Intoxicated- Endang	Officers got multiple calls for an intoxicated driver. Multiple reporters stated the driver drove off the road in the area of Lynch and US HWY 41. Officers arrived and located the described vehicle (red passenger vehicle) off the road. Officers then observed a truck leaving the area, and the driver was no longer in the red vehicle off on the side of the road. Officers conducted a traffic stop north of the vehicle, locating the driver. Officers had the driver step out of the vehicle. The odor of alcohol was present as the driver of the red vehicle pulled himself out. The driver stumbled around and was placed in handcuffs. The driver had to brace himself against the vehicle as officers read him Miranda, he understood his rights. The driver admitted to driving the red vehicle, which was later found to be registered to him. The driver admitted to drinking three beers before driving the red vehicle. The driver stated he left a friend's house, unable to state where the male exactly lived, and then drove off the road. The driver then got into a friend's vehicle and left the red vehicle off the road, in the ditch. Officers called for the transport wagon, and the male was transported to VCCC. Once at VCCC, officers made the decision that it was unsafe for the driver to complete field sobriety tests. The driver could not stand on his own, and had to sit on the floor of the wagon to get out. Before getting in the wagon, the driver almost fell into oncoming traffic while standing against officers' vehicles. Officers read the male Implied Consent and the male agreed to a certified breathalyzer. The driver was given the test and blew a .235 grams of alcohol per 210 liters of breath at VCCC. During the process of the breathalyzer, the driver passed out while sitting in the chair, dropping the trash can he had in his hands. The driver also admitted he drank too much before getting behind the wheel of the vehicle and driving. The driver was booked in on multiple charges. His vehicle was towed with an EPD Admin Fee. Officers observed damage to the red vehicle. The wheel was bent under the vehicle and appeared as if the driver hit a curb at one point. No damage was found to any property in the area.
