Oil/hashish/	and Franklin, they observed an SUV disregard a flashing red light heading at the intersection of Twelfth and Franklin (heading south on twelfth, turning east on Franklin. Officers turned around and attempted to get behind the SUV. Officers observed the SUV activate their right turn signal and turn south on Tenth. Officers turned south on tenth and observed the vehicle heading west in the south alley (runs east and west). Officers turned west on Illinois and observed the SUV with its lights off traveling south in the parking lot behind Buds Country Bar. Officers turned their vehicle around and observed the vehicle circle back in the south parking lot of Bud`s and park their vehicle. Officers got behind the vehicle and activated their emergency lights and conducted a traffic stop. Officers observed the driver get out of the vehicle and later the passenger. Officers patted the driver down for weapons and located a loaded 9mm Taurus handgun in his left jacket pocket. Officers took the firearm off his person. The odor of alcohol was present, both on his breath and on his clothing. Another officer arrived on scene and patted the passenger down for weapons. He had no weapons. Officers initially released the passenger from the traffic stop, and he waited behind the bar for officers to complete their investigation. The passenger was later given a citation for marijuana (located in the passenger side door), which was later located in the vehicle after officers gained consent from the driver to search the vehicle. Officers asked the driver if he would take field sobriety tests and a portable breathalyzer. The driver passed all tests given by officers. Officers read the driver Pritle and Miranda, he stated he understood his rights. The driver gave officers consent to search his vehicle. The driver informed officers they would locate marijuana in the vehicle. Officers later located marijuana in under the radio and later a digital scale in a backpack behind the passenger seat. The 3.1 grams located under the radio and the 2.5 grams in the passenger door later tested positive for marijuana using NARK II test Kit 05. Officers placed the driver in handcuffs and he was transported to VCCC. Once at VCCC, officers reread the driver Miranda. Officers asked the driver how often he uses marijuana. The driver stated everyday (personal use). Officers found a pervious conviction for possession of marijuana on the driver. Officers informed the driver, that since in is an avid drug user, he was in violation of constitutional carry in Indiana. The driver was charged with multiple charges.
