	trailer by VIN or registration is not listed as stolen in NCIC. The company attorney says he is not sure exactly why the semi-trailer was never reported as stolen. At this time it appears to have been overlooked but the company would like to recover their stolen property (semi-trailer). The reporting attorney says that there was never an insurance payout on the trailer. The trailer has now been located in Vanderburgh County on private property and the owner of the property did not answer his door when deputies knocked on the door. The trailer remains on private property at the time of this report. The Evansville Police Department has taken an incident report without listing the semi-trailer as stolen in NCIC. An investigation into the stolen semi-trailer is underway prior to listing the trailer as stolen in NCIC or any recovery. The semi-trailer was possibly not registered since 06/07/2016. The trailer is not immediately being listed as stolen due to the unusual amount of 1345 days between the alleged theft and the report to law enforcement. EPD Auto Theft is investigating and sharing information with the Vanderburgh County Sheriff's Office to assist the alleged victim in recovering their alleged stolen property. Sgt. 	Officers were dispatched to the above address in reference to a domestic violence in progress. While en-route, I learned that one of the current residents at the above address, the OW, had an active misdemeanor warrant.
	Once I was at the scene we made contact with the OW, but he was being verbally non-compliant, and was not following officers` orders. Later I was able to take him in custody without any incident. During course of my investigation the OW failed to comply with all of my orders to quiet down and follow commands. Once I was satisfied with my investigation and came to conclusion that we did not have domestic violence, but only false call, because the female parties and the OW were drunk, I proceeded to escort the OW towards my patrol vehicle, because he was being loud and kept trying to get into verbal argument with the female parties. When I was escorting the OW towards my patrol vehicle, I had his cellphone in my right hand, but OW started to resist me and kept pushing himself with his body and legs away from me. I had to control him with my arm, and pushed him all the way to my patrol car. Once we were close to the right rear passenger side of my patrol car, I placed the OW`s cellphone on top of my patrol car`s roof, and safely placed the OW inside the patrol car and closed the door. Right after that female party came back and demanded to go back in residence, but as they told me at first, they were just out there visiting, but at this point they changed their story and stated that they were residents there and had no proof. I told them that I couldn`t let them in, and proceeded to make sure that the front door was locked, and it wasn`t, so I opened the door and properly secured it, since the OW was going to jail.
	Once I was finished talking to females I got back in my car and transported the OW to the jail, and booked him in on his warrant, and completely forgot about his phone being on top of my vehicle. I did ask officers to check the area, but they were unable to find anything. I also did look around the area and did not find anything. I notified Sergeant Fair about the incident.

Upon arrival, Carlie Summers, stated the father of her child was violating their custody agreement. Summers stated that her daughters`s father, Kavion Brodie, was refusing to give their juvenile back and was in violation of their agreement. She advised this week, Brodie was supposed to have custody of the child from Thursday from 1700hrs till Friday 0800hrs. Summers advised that Brodie stated he was not returning the child till 1800hrs on Friday. Summers provided a parenting agreement confirming her statement. I spoke to Brodie, who advised that Summers presented an old copy of the agreement. He stated he did not have to return his daughter until 1800hrs but did not have a copy of the most current agreement. I advised to Brodie it would be in the best interest of him in the future to let Summers have custody of the child due to them having prior arrangements. Brodie agreed and his daughter went with Summers.		HOLLINS, B. E.
