Reported: 11/12/2022. On the listed date, Officer Rose was working off-duty at Franklin St Tavern and was requested to assist security at Bud`s Tavern for a male subject refusing to leave. Officer Rose advised the subject, the listed offender, had been refused entry and jumped over the patio fence in order to go inside. Officer Rose advised this happened twice and then the offender attempted to enter Franklin St. Tavern. I, Officer Hastings, located the offender standing on the public sidewalk outside the tavern arguing with Officer Rose. When I approached the offender I could smell the strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his person. When I spoke with the offender and he spoke, the offender`s speech was slurred, the offender was swaying as he stood and staggered as he was trying to keep his balance. I advised the offender he had been asked to leave several times due to his intoxicated state and that he needed to do so in order to avoid going to jail. The offender ignored the suggestion and was more concerned about getting officers badge numbers. Due to the numerous encounters with security and officers, the offender was taken into custody for public intoxication and I transported him to the Vanderburgh Co Confinement Center without incident. The offender was housed on the listed charge.		HASTINGS, M. J.
