LW 2221902 Battery- Aggravated	 Eggers, John Emery (W M, 37) VICTIM of Battery- Aggravated (C), at 2112 S Weinbach Ave, Evansville, IN, between 00:15, 11/01/2022 and 00:27, 11/01/2022. Reported: 11/01/2022. Officers were in the area of S Weinbach Ave and Sweetser Ave when they were flagged down by a white male that was standing in the middle of the roadway. Upon making contact with male it was apparent that he was heavily intoxicated and had just been in a physical altercation. Another officer arrived on scene and advised that there had just been a fight at a nearby bar and he was more than likely one of the involved parties. The males visible injuries were consistent with him being in a fight. Officers who responded to the bar fight advised that this male was the problem party and had been kicked out of the bar after he started a fight with several of the patrons. The bar did not wish him to be banned. None of the other involved parties wanted to press any charges. The male was detained due to the combination of his high level of intoxication and his inability to stand or walk steadily on his own. He advised officers he had just been in a fight at a nearby bar and he lost. While the male was detained he was unable to stay sitting up and was bleeding from his head, around his eye and mouth. AMR was called to the scene and the male was transported to Deaconess Midtown for jail clearance for public intoxication. After arriving at Deaconess Midtown medical staff advised officers that the male`s injuries were possibly more severe than they at first appeared. Officers at the hospital made contact with the officers who had been at the original bar fight to respond back to the bar to attempt to identify everyone involved in the altercation. The bar had already closed at this time. EPD Crime Scene responded to the hospital to document the male`s injuries. After some time at the hospital medical staff advised officers the male had serious injuries to his face. The decision to release the male from EPD custody was made at this time with consideration to his injuries. A report was completed to document the incident. The male was adamant that he did not want to press charges against anyone involved in the fight.		MALCOMSON, J.
